

North West Community First Responders (NWCFR)

Trustees Annual Report for Year Ended 1st April 2023

The Trustees present their report and accounts for North West Community First Responders for year ended 1st April 2023. Public Benefit Statement North West Community First Responders confirm that they have had due regard for the guidance on the Public Benefit by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland and are pleased to report that during the period, the group continued to provide the Public Benefit through the programmes and services on offer. In particular, the Trustees consider how planned activities will contribute to the aims and objectives they are set.

Public Benefit

The direct benefits that flow from our purpose are to recruit, coordinate and equip local volunteers. Volunteers are trained and alerted by NI Ambulance Service to assess and provide an appropriate intervention to those with appropriate medical emergencies in their localities. North West Community First Responders carries out its purpose by providing resuscitation, care and support to a casualty pending the arrival of an emergency ambulance which will be dispatched simultaneously with the first responders. The group averages 70 alerts per month, with an average response rate of 20% of alerts attended by responders.

Achievements and Performance

Following the creation of the group, North West Community First Responders continued to fundraise throughout period to 1st April 2023.

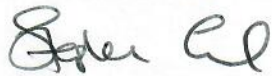

The total income for the period amounted to £3,940. The income entirely derived from donations and gifts.

£2,100 was invested in equipment such as Defibrillators and kits for responders, and a further £450 in associated responder consumables such as AED pads and batteries

£675.67 of general running costs of the group which included insurance, uniform, stationery and IT expenses for the group; allowing for a total carried forward in reserve of £8,781 to be able to carry on it's charitable activities.

The Trustees consider that North West Community First Responders is in a satisfactory position to continue to carry on its charitable activities.

This brings the charity up to date with it's current obligations on reporting

North West Community First Responders (NWCFR)

Independent Examiners Report to the Trustees of NWCFR

I report on the accounts of NWCFR for the year ended 01/04/2023.

Respective Responsibilities of the trustees and examiner

As the Charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008. It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act 2008
- Follow the procedure laid down in the general Directions given by the commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act 2008;
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of the Independent Examiners Report

I have examined your Charity Accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charities Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosed in the accounts, and seeing explanations from you as Charity Trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state where any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act.
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records.
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the charities Act.
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiners Statement

I have completed by examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland; I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
