Details on How Organisation is Constituted

The Group is constituted through its Memorandum & Articles of Association which were updated on 13th December 2019.

Principal Activities

In the year up to year end December 2022 the Charity remained dormant. This was because funding acquired was in the name of Sir Hans Sloane Education and Visitor Centre C.I.C and the bank account of that name. The C.I.C had been set up as a mean-time social enterprise while charitable status for the company Sir Hans Sloane Centre Ltd was being established. The Covid 19 pandemic and its impact on the running of the Centre and all associated administration meant that it was not convenient or opportune to cease the C.I.C and transfer all operation to the charity. Trustees agreed to the charity remaining dormant until such times that the impact of the pandemic had subsided, and a migration could be put in place. The principal activities of the C.I.C were those of the aims and vision of the charity and are summarised in the following paragraphs.

Through the latter end of 2023 steps towards migration were investigated: The Bank account name was changed to Sir Hans Sloane Centre. Future funding would be in the name of the charitable company and where necessary to inform any funders of the change.

Work to be designated as by the charity were exactly those carried out as the C.I.C. These are:

Activities which benefit the community and in particular individuals of all ages, abilities, gender, religion and cultural background who can potentially benefit from access to education, history and science for the overall enhancement of community cohesion and economic recovery of Killyleagh and its surrounds.

The income for the year was £38,869 which was a considerable increase from 2022 in which, in an effort to apply for less grants, and to build on income generation was £18,808. For 2023 grants income totalled £14,159. Grants are still an important part of our income at 36.4% of the total. Grants for children's activities were from the Ulster Scots Agency and the British Science Association. Other grants were Government Grants as part of Rural Regeneration for renewed shop frontage and heritage and therefore contributed mostly to the fabric of the building, improving its appeal and what it could offer the public in terms of heritage and tourism experiences.

Importantly £24,710 or 63.60% of income was generated through Rental, Sales of Goods, Room Hire and Donations. Hence, excluding Donations 48.1% was generated income.

Sales of Goods and Events brought in £5680 or 14.6%, Donations £6010 or 15.5%, Room Hire £4475 or 11.5%.

£15,980 or 41.1% of income was used on Overheads and so with a small reserve carried over £26,455 or 57.2% of our income was towards our charitable aims.

Our charitable aims are achieved through a programme of events and workshops to the community benefit. The programme of activities catered for all ages and included. Senior Citizen's Friendship Group, Parent and Toddler Group, Summer Scheme for children 6-12yrs, adult Art Classes, Art Exhibitions, Music Evenings and Talks.

The Centre was hired out for use by third parties, and this brought in an income of £4,475 which was almost 11.5% of generated income. Room Hire was by the Department of Education for a Mental Health Programme for teenage girls, A Friendship Group for the elderly, a room was hired for Music Therapy workshops for teenagers and vulnerable adults. An office hired out to two young entrepreneurs.

The Centre offered school students some work experience in admin, childcare and activity development. There were no paid staff, and the position of Director is by philanthropy. Volunteers number 8 on a regular basis and other ad hoc giving. This donated time, expertise and effort has an estimated value of £110,000. Therefore the total income of the Centre is £148,869

Future Outlook

The Centre now has many interesting features and four high quality rooms and one outdoor garden space, all now in use at various times, day and evening. This enables the Centre to run a greater diversity of activities and therefore serve the community much more comprehensively. The Gift Shop was moved to allow for extension of the museum area in the Centre. We worked with the British Museum and successfully developed a link to Sloane's legacy. We were creative partners and collaborators with the British Museum on the Sloane Lab project. Although there was no funding available, discussions and workshops were held, building good relations and the first steps towards developing a digital tie between the two organisations. Funding from NIHE was not forthcoming and so the creation of the public garden did not happen, but a benefactor started a small Botanical Garden.

The proposal to close the C.I.C would progress with the closure of the C.I.C and total transfer to the charity.

A review of the financial position at the end of the year

The company had been dormant through the early part of the year but with the transfer of the reserves of the C.I.C to the charity in the latter months.

Public Benefit Requirement

The Trustees have had regard to the Public Benefit Requirement statutory guidance.

Details on How Organisation is Constituted

The Group is constituted through its Memorandum & Articles of Association which were updated on 13th December 2019.

Principal Activities

In the year up to year end December 2022 the Charity remained dormant. This was because funding acquired was in the name of Sir Hans Sloane Education and Visitor Centre C.I.C and the bank account of that name. The C.I.C had been set up as a mean-time social enterprise while charitable status for the company Sir Hans Sloane Centre Ltd was being established. The Covid 19 pandemic and its impact on the running of the Centre and all associated administration meant that it was not convenient or opportune to cease the C.I.C and transfer all operation to the charity. Trustees agreed to the charity remaining dormant until such times that the impact of the pandemic had subsided, and a migration could be put in place. The principal activities of the C.I.C were those of the aims and vision of the charity and are summarised in the following paragraphs.

Through the latter end of 2023 steps towards migration were investigated: The Bank account name was changed to Sir Hans Sloane Centre. Future funding would be in the name of the charitable company and where necessary to inform any funders of the change.

Work to be designated as by the charity were exactly those carried out as the C.I.C. These are:

Activities which benefit the community and in particular individuals of all ages, abilities, gender, religion and cultural background who can potentially benefit from access to education, history and science for the overall enhancement of community cohesion and economic recovery of Killyleagh and its surrounds.

The income for the year was £38,869 which was a considerable increase from 2022 in which, in an effort to apply for less grants, and to build on income generation was £18,808. For 2023 grants income totalled £14,159. Grants are still an important part of our income at 36.4% of the total. Grants for children's activities were from the Ulster Scots Agency and the British Science Association. Other grants were Government Grants as part of Rural Regeneration for renewed shop frontage and heritage and therefore contributed mostly to the fabric of the building, improving its appeal and what it could offer the public in terms of heritage and tourism experiences.

Importantly £24,710 or 63.60% of income was generated through Rental, Sales of Goods, Room Hire and Donations. Hence, excluding Donations 48.1% was generated income.

Sales of Goods and Events brought in £5680 or 14.6%, Donations £6010 or 15.5%, Room Hire £4475 or 11.5%.

£15,980 or 41.1% of income was used on Overheads and so with a small reserve carried over £26,455 or 57.2% of our income was towards our charitable aims.

Our charitable aims are achieved through a programme of events and workshops to the community benefit. The programme of activities catered for all ages and included. Senior Citizen's Friendship Group, Parent and Toddler Group, Summer Scheme for children 6-12yrs, adult Art Classes, Art Exhibitions, Music Evenings and Talks.

The Centre was hired out for use by third parties, and this brought in an income of £4,475 which was almost 11.5% of generated income. Room Hire was by the Department of Education for a Mental Health Programme for teenage girls, A Friendship Group for the elderly, a room was hired for Music Therapy workshops for teenagers and vulnerable adults. An office hired out to two young entrepreneurs.

The Centre offered school students some work experience in admin, childcare and activity development. There were no paid staff, and the position of Director is by philanthropy. Volunteers number 8 on a regular basis and other ad hoc giving. This donated time, expertise and effort has an estimated value of £110,000. Therefore the total income of the Centre is £148,869

The Centre now has many interesting features and four high quality rooms and one outdoor garden space, all now in use at various times, day and evening. This enables the Centre to run a greater diversity of activities and therefore serve the community much more comprehensively. The Gift Shop was moved to allow for extension of the museum area in the Centre. We worked with the British Museum and successfully developed a link to Sloane's legacy. Although there was no funding available, discussions and workshops were held, building good relations and the first steps towards developing a digital tie between the two organisations. Funding from NIHE was not forthcoming and so the creation of the public garden did not happen, but a benefactor started a small Botanical Garden.

The proposal to close the C.I.C would progress with the closure of the C.I.C and total transfer to the charity.

A review of the financial position at the end of the year

The company had been dormant through the early part of the year but with the transfer of the reserves of the C.I.C to the charity in the latter months.

Eamonn P McGrady & Co report on the accounts of the Sir Hans Sloane Centre Ltd. for the year ended 31st December 2023, which are set out on page 5 to 10.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (NI) 2008.

It is the responsibility of Eamonn P McGrady & Co to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commission under section 65(9) (b) of the Charities Act.
- state whether particular matters have come to our attention

Basis of independent examiner's statement

Eamonn P McGrady & Co have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and our examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission NI under section 65(9) (b) of the Charities Act.

Our examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

The role of Eamonn P McGrady & Co is to state whether any material matters have come to our attention giving cause to believe:

1. that accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 62 of the Charities Act
2. that the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. that the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. that there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

Independent examiner's statement

Eamonn P McGrady & Co have completed an examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters 1 to 4 listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission NI have no matters that require to be drawn to your attention.
