2. Structure, Governance and Management

The charity was formally established on 21 March 2022 and is constituted as a charitable organisation operating under its governing document, with trustees appointed in accordance with that document. Although the charity has been established for some time, it has not yet commenced financial activity. Governance arrangements remain straightforward, and all trustees share responsibility for overseeing development, training, preparation, and future operational activity.

3. Objectives and Activities

Charitable Purpose:

The charity exists to establish and maintain a group of community first responders covering the parish, townlands and surrounding areas of Killeshill and Galbally, Co. Tyrone. The aim is to enhance and protect the life of any person requiring urgent first aid until the arrival of ambulance services.

Activities include responding to emergencies such as chest pains, heart attack, angina, strokes, and choking, providing CPR and AED support, and offering CPR/AED training to the public.

Public Benefit:

The trustees confirm they have considered the Charity Commission's public benefit guidance. The primary benefit is a faster emergency response and lifesaving intervention.

4. Achievements and Performance

Although the charity has been in existence since 2022, no financial or operational activity has taken place during the reporting period. Work has instead focused on maintaining governance arrangements and preparing for future training and operational readiness.

5. Financial Review

The charity had no income, no expenditure, and no funds held during the financial year.

A reserves policy will be developed once the charity begins receiving funds and becomes operational.

6. Plans for the Future

Plans for the next year include:

- Training community first responders

- Completing Access NI checks and mandatory training
- Responding to NI Ambulance Service emergency alerts
- Providing CPR/AED training to the public
- Acquiring necessary equipment
- Increasing community engagement and awareness

7. Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and financial statements in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 and associated regulations.

They must ensure the charity keeps adequate accounting records and produces accurate statements.

Approved by the trustees on: 25-11-25

Independent Examiner's Report

Killeshill & Galbally Community First Responders

Registered Charity Number: 108531

For the year ending: 05 April 2024

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of Killeshill & Galbally Community First Responders for the year ended 05 April 2024 as required under Section 65 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

Responsibilities and Basis of Report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008. I have been appointed to carry out an independent examination of these accounts as required by the Act.

My examination has been conducted in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland. An independent examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements to:

- keep accounting records in accordance with Section 63 of the Charities Act (NI) 2008; and
- prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the requirements of the Act have not been met.

I also report that there has been no financial activity during the year, and the accounts are consistent with the records reviewed.
