REPORT FROM NIFSP TRUSTEES FOR THE CHARITY COMMISSIONERS FOR THE PERIOD 1 JANUARY TO 31 DECEMBER 2023

During the year January to December 2023, the Northern Ireland Fund for the Support of Psychoanalysis (NIFSP) has been dormant.

According to the Fund's Constitution, the declared charitable purposes of the Fund are as follows: to advance education and mental health in the community by supporting financially the study, development, and clinical application of psychoanalysis and psychoanalytic psychotherapy, including the provision of low-fee psychoanalytic treatment to individuals who would not otherwise be able to access it.

The main target of the Fund's activities has been the provision of financial support for the training of psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists who are registered trainees of the Northern Ireland Psychoanalytic Society (NIPaS), which is the only organization in Northern Ireland accredited by the British Psychoanalytic Council (BPC) and/or the International Psychoanalytical Association (IPA).

After an unprecedented number of trainees graduated from the accredited training in 2021 and 2022, and since 2 of the remaining trainees were absent for most of the year 2023 on maternity leave, there was no call on the Fund's resources in the course of 2023. With the recent recruitment of a number of new NIPaS trainees, it is expected that there will be a round of training grants in late 2024 or 2025, which will in all likelihood require some replenishment of NIFSP's funds. The NIFSP is very much a going concern.

Governance

There were no changes in the officers of the organization.

No Trustee derived any private benefit from the organization in the course of the year.

Dear Trustees

Re: Independent examiner's report for year end 31 December 2023

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 December 2023, which are set out in section 3 of my examination file.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
