Trustees' Report for the year ended 1 January 2025

Reserves Policy:

The charity's policy is to retain a level of reserves which matches the needs of the charitable charity both at the current time and in the foreseeable future. This also allows the charity to plan for future developments. This is estimated at a reserve level of £10,000 and general reserves are currently above this level. The reserves policy is reviewed annually. Free reserves are those unrestricted reserves not designated for, nor invested in fixed assets and which are available for general use and can be designated for future developments.

Risk Management:

The Trustees' recognise the major risks that the company faces each financial year when preparing and updating the strategic plan and as such has developed systems to monitor and control these risks to mitigate any impact that they may have on the organisation in the future.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in Northern Ireland requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

1. Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistency
2. Observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP
3. Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
4. State whether applicable accounting standards, comprising FRS 102, have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
5. Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 and The Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2015. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
