Dunseverick Baptist Church

Registered Charity Number - 108748

For the year ended 31 December 2024

The Trustees' report

Objectives, Activities and Charitable Purposes

The principal purpose of the Church is the advancement of the Christian Faith according to Biblical Principles contained within the teaching of Scripture. It exists to glorify God by maintaining and promoting His worship both individually and corporately, and acknowledges the absolute supremacy of The Lord Jesus Christ as Head of The Church. The membership of the Church seek to follow the teaching of Scripture and involve themselves in the governance of the assembly, the advancement of its aims, participation in fellowship, breaking of bread, prayer and evangelism. The Church also may seek to advance education, the relief of poverty and sickness, the comfort of the bereaved and the promotion of any other charitable purposes in the United Kingdom and other parts of the world.

Dunseverick Baptist Church conducts regular services for public worship, prayer, Bible study, preaching and teaching for all age groups, and provides pastoral care to the sick and elderly of the church through visitation and prayer. We contribute financially to registered charitable organisations whose aim is the relief of poverty and sickness.

The Trustees have paid due regard to guidance issued by the Charity Commission in deciding what activities the charity should undertake.

The Trustees are satisfied that the Charity has achieved its objectives in the year under review.

Public Benefit

In fulfilling the public benefit requirement, the charity trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's statutory public benefit guidance.

The purposes of this charity and the direct benefits that flow from the charity's activities continue to be;

As Scripture is taught, the moral code from which much of legislation derives its values from is presented. A true sense of value is given to human life from conception. The Biblical command to love our neighbour is taught, which is a core principle of Scriptural teaching. We believe in a holistic approach to well-being, encompassing the spiritual as well as mental and physical aspects of humanity.

- Direct benefits flowing from the organisation's purpose;
- Eternal salvation and adoption into the family of God through the gospel of Jesus Christ.
 - The spread of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, bringing reconciliation both between human beings and God and between human beings.
 - The gaining of an understanding in Christian beliefs as set out in the Bible and the Doctrinal Statement of the Church leading to spiritual and moral development and personal growth in the Christian Faith.
 - The provision of regular Christian education, helping people to understand, live out, defend and promote the Christian gospel of Jesus Christ.
 - Practical expressions of Christian beliefs and standards in the local community such as through the care of those in need, assistance and comfort to the sick, elderly and bereaved.
 - The development of individual ability and gift through the engagement of willing volunteers in practical and spiritual service.
 - The positive impact on society that comes from the living out of a Christian worldview.

The Trustees are satisfied that the Charity has achieved its public benefit objectives in the year under review.

The benefits to the beneficiaries arising from the purpose is demonstrated through;

The number of those attending activities and events and benefiting directly each week from the Bible teaching and the corporate worship, the leaders and helpers mobilised each week through various programmes and the positive contributions of members within the wider community; and, the effective pastoral care supporting both families and individuals. This is evidenced through regular evaluation and informal feedback from members and those attending events, their families and the general public within the community in which the Church operates. The Trustees do not anticipate that any harm will flow from any of the above purposes. The church's beneficiaries are Church Members and adherents, and anyone who chooses to attend the church services which are open to members of the general public, other individuals that the Church is in direct and indirect contact with, the community in which pastoral services are provided and other communities throughout Northern Ireland, the Republic of Ireland, and worldwide which benefit from our engagement with and support for both Christian and other secular organisations. The only private benefits flowing from our purposes are the provision of stipend for any pastor of the church who will also assume the role of Trustee and paid employment for the personnel required to manage the work of the Church. Such stipend, salaries and any incurred expenses are incidental and necessary to enable the Church to provide the pastoral and administrative support required to fulfil the stated Purpose.

The information below sets out the activities we have carried out to further our purposes and fulfil each of the public benefit elements during the last 12 months

The Trustees have the responsibility for the operational deliverance of the charity's activities and achievement of the objectives.

Achievements and Performance

Total incoming resources for the year amounted to £45,274 (2023 - £48,253) and after deducting total resources expended of £57,657 (2023 - £58,526) net outgoing resources amounted to £12,383 (2023 - £10,173).

All resources received and expended are treated as unrestricted funds. At the year end, unrestricted funds amounted to £166,130 (2023 - £178,513).

The Trustees have assessed the major risks to which the Charity is exposed, in particular those related to the operations and finances, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate exposure.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the accounts in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

The law applicable to charities in Northern Ireland requires the Trustees to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the affairs of the charity and the incoming resources and application of the resources, including the net income or expenditure, of the charity for the year.

In preparing the accounts the Trustees confirm that they have done so on a going concern basis.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Dunseverick Baptist Church

We report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Independent Examiner

The charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008. The charity's Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 65 of the Charities Act and that an independent examination is needed.

It is our responsibility to:

- (i) examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act;
- (ii) to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act; and
- (iii) state whether particular matters have come to our attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the independent examiner's statement below.

Our role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Act
2. That the financial statements do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the financial statements do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiner's statement

We have completed our examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Dunseverick Baptist Church

We report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 December 2023.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Independent Examiner

The charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008. The charity's Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 65 of the Charities Act and that an independent examination is needed.

It is our responsibility to:

- (i) examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act;
- (ii) to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act; and
- (iii) state whether particular matters have come to our attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the independent examiner's statement below.

Our role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Act
2. That the financial statements do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the financial statements do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiner's statement

We have completed our examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
