Annual report

Waringstown Men's Shed - Annual Report

1st April 2023 to 31st March 2024

Purposes

Waringstown Men's Shed was formally constituted on 2nd February 2022 to advance the health and wellbeing of men in the Waringstown area and to reduce social isolation by:

providing a safe space for men to connect with others whilst participating in creative, physical and purposeful group and/or individual projects and activities.

helping men to build relationships, to share skills and knowledge with the aim of reducing social isolation and contributing to improving men's general physical and mental health and well-being.

Beneficiaries

Over the period covered by this report up to twelve men of various ages living in the Waringstown area attended the Shed on a weekly or more regular basis.

Activities

Projects carried out included continuing repair and maintenance of the Shed building; repair of equipment and ornaments for community members; work on individual wood-work items and items for sale in fund-raising, including the turning of wooden pens; further installation of wood-working machines; maintenance of the Community Garden; construction of planters for the Community Garden and village; and contributing to the refurbishment of the "Wee house", a feature of interest in the centre of the village.

Training in the safe use of machines was carried out. A further demonstration on wood-turning was well attended.

These activities have contributed to the purposes set out above by providing a safe space where relationships have been built, and skills and knowledge have been shared. No harm has flowed from them.

Public Benefit

The trustees have given careful consideration to the Commission's Public benefit requirement statutory guidance, and have ensured that activities have contributed to the charity's purposes and have benefited the stated beneficiaries.

There has been no private gain by any individual member.

Acknowledgements

Waringstown Men's Shed would like to thank all those who have contributed financially, in-kind, and with their time and expertise, to a very successful year for Waringstown Men's Shed.

Annual return

Independent examiner's report to the charity trustees of Waringstown Men's Shed. Charity Number: 108866

I report on the accounts of the Waringstown Men's Shed for the year ended 31 March 2024.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and, seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
