TRUSTEES' REPORT

STRUCTURE AND MANAGEMENT

The structure of the Trust is made up from members who had brought a case in terms of pollution against a government body. The external bodies made up of Riparian landowners and fishing clubs elected a board of Directors to oversee the running of the Trust. There are 4 directors and they are subject to re-election on a rotational basis each year.

The governing documents are the Articles of Association and the Trust Deed.

DESCRIPTION AND PURPOSE

The Loughs Agency was set up with the primary aim to conserve, protect, manage and improve the Fisheries of the Foyle and Carlingford areas. The Agency acting on its own behalf and also on behalf of local external parties received an out of court settlement in June 2009 for £500,000 relating to several pollution incidents from 1999 to 2004. Part of the terms of the agreement were that monies were to be spent on river rehabilitation works in accordance with North Atlantic Salmon Conservation Organization "NASCO" guidelines and overseen by a trust to ensure this money was kept separate from the Agency's core funding. The money was held by the Agency's solicitor in a high interest account until it was transferred to the Loughs Agency in February 2011 along with the interest earned.

As the settlement funds are held on trust and only to be used for specific purposes they have been included within deferred income as a provision against future costs. As these costs are incurred they are applied against the balance.

There was just over £42,790 spent on projects over the year and the works included, bank revetment, spawning beds, nursery streams, and riparian strips to grow trees in and keep animals from the water courses. Extra funding was sought during the year and the trust received £18,348 in funding from DAERA for other schemes over and above the initial objective such as tree planting and fencing. In 2026 we hope to continue the spend with a further £44,000 being received from DAERA for work on similar projects and also to seek extra funding to assist in the schemes planned.

While the broad aim is to enhance and improve the rivers and tributaries within the Trust's area the benefit extends way beyond any increase in salmonid populations as by improving the quality of the river it has a knock-on effect on the invertebrates, birds and on up the food chain. It potentially helps with flood alleviation, community involvement, pride in the area, potential for an increase in angling tourism, fishing etc.

ACTIVITIES AND OBJECTIVES

The Company's objectives are specifically restricted to the following Objectives:

- i. To conserve, protect, rehabilitate, reinstate and improve the rivers, streams, watercourses and water impoundments of the catchments comprising the rivers River Strule and its tributaries above the confluence of the River Owenkillow.
- ii. To carry out such works to reinstate or improve the habitat for inland fisheries of the Strule catchment upstream of, but excluding the River Owenkillow, in compliance with NASCO guidelines;
- iii. To advance the education of the public, or any association, company, local authority, administrative or governmental agency or public body or representative body in the understanding, preservation and conservation of rivers, river corridors and catchments, including their fauna, flora, and economic or social activity, and river catchment management.
- iv. To secure and distribute funding to assist in the implementation of the overall aim and objectives of the Trust.
- v. To protect, conserve, rehabilitate, reinstate, improve and preserve, as far as is practically possible, for the benefit of the public the local environment and the quality of the rivers, streams, watercourses and water impoundments and the better development of the rural and urban environment.

Strule Tributaries and Rivers Trust Limited

Independent Examiner's Report to the Charity trustees on the Unaudited Annual report of Strule Tributaries and Rivers Trust Limited

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31st December 2025, which are set out overleaf.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 65 of the charities Act
- Follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

- That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
- That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
- That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
- That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

Annual return

Independent Examiner's Report to the Charity trustees on the Unaudited Annual report of Strule Tributaries and Rivers Trust Limited

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31st December 2024, which are set out overleaf.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 65 of the charities Act
- Follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

- That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
- That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
- That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
- That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

TRUSTEES' REPORT

STRUCTURE AND MANAGEMENT

The structure of the Trust is made up from members who had brought a case in terms of pollution against a government body. The external bodies made up of Riparian landowners and fishing clubs elected a board of Directors to oversee the running of the Trust. There are 5 directors and they are subject to re-election on a rotational basis each year.

The governing documents are the Articles of Association and the Trust Deed.

DESCRIPTION AND PURPOSE

The Loughs Agency was set up with the primary aim to conserve, protect, manage and improve the Fisheries of the Foyle and Carlingford areas. The Agency acting on its own behalf and also on behalf of local external parties received an out of court settlement in June 2009 for £500,000 relating to several pollution incidents from 1999 to 2004. Part of the terms of the agreement were that monies were to be spent on river rehabilitation works in accordance with North Atlantic Salmon Conservation Organization "NASCO" guidelines and overseen by a trust to ensure this money was kept separate from the Agency's core funding. The money was held by the Agency's solicitor in a high interest account until it was transferred to the Loughs Agency in February 2011 along with the interest earned.

As the settlement funds are held on trust and only to be used for specific purposes they have been included within deferred income as a provision against future costs. As these costs are incurred they are applied against the balance.

There was just over £66,500 spent on projects over the year and the works included, bank revetment, spawning beds, nursery streams, and riparian strips to grow trees in and keep animals from the water courses. Extra funding was sought during the year and the trust received £14,448 in funding from DAERA for other schemes over and above the initial objective such as tree planting and fencing. In 2024 we hope to continue the spend on similar projects and also to seek extra funding to assist in the schemes planned.

While the broad aim is to enhance and improve the rivers and tributaries within the Trust's area the benefit extends way beyond any increase in salmonid populations as by improving the quality of the river it has a knock-on effect on the invertebrates, birds and on up the food chain. It potentially helps with flood alleviation, community involvement, pride in the area, potential for an increase in angling tourism, fishing etc.

ACTIVITIES AND OBJECTIVES

The Company's objectives are specifically restricted to the following Objectives:

- i. To conserve, protect, rehabilitate, reinstate and improve the rivers, streams, watercourses and water impoundments of the catchments comprising the rivers River Strule and its tributaries above the confluence of the River Owenkilliw.
- ii. To carry out such works to reinstate or improve the habitat for inland fisheries of the Strule catchment upstream of, but excluding the River Owenkilliw, in compliance with NASCO guidelines;
- iii. To advance the education of the public, or any association, company, local authority, administrative or governmental agency or public body or representative body in the understanding, preservation and conservation of rivers, river corridors and catchments, including their fauna, flora, and economic or social activity, and river catchment management.
- iv. To secure and distribute funding to assist in the implementation of the overall aim and objectives of the Trust.
- v. To protect, conserve, rehabilitate, reinstate, improve and preserve, as far as is practically possible, for the benefit of the public the local environment and the quality of the rivers, streams, watercourses and water impoundments and the better development of the rural and urban environment.
