Officers' and Management Committee's responsibility for the financial statements

The Registration of Clubs (NI) Order 1996 requires officers and management committee to prepare an annual statement of accounts which gives a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the club and of the income and expenditure of the club for that financial year. In preparing the statement of accounts the officers and committee members are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the club will continue in business

The officers and management committee are also responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the club and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Registration of Clubs (Accounts) Regulations (NI) 1997. They also are responsible for safeguarding the assets of the club and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Signed:

Chairman

Treasurer

Date: 06.04.25

We have independently examined the income and expenditure accounts of Drumaness Super Kings Cricket Club.

This report is made solely to the club's members, as a body, in accordance with Article 4 of the Registration of Clubs (Accounts) Regulations (NI) 1997. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the club's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the club and the club's members as a body, for our work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of committee of management and auditor

As explained more fully in the Committee of Management's Responsibilities Statement set out on page 1, the Committee of Management is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements which give a true and fair view. Our responsibility is to examine and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with applicable law.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

Opinion on financial statements

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the club's affairs as at 31st March 2024, and of its income and expenditure for the year then ended; and
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice applicable to Smaller Entities, and the Registration of Clubs (Accounts) Regulations (NI) 1997.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Registration of Clubs (Accounts) Regulations (NI) 1997 require us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- proper books of account have not been kept by the club in accordance with the requirements of the legislation,
- a satisfactory system of control over transactions has been maintained by the club in accordance with the requirements of the legislation,
- the revenue account of the other accounts (if any) to which our report relates, and the balance sheet are not in agreement with the books of account of the club,
- we have not obtained all of the information and explanations we require for our examination

Annual report

Drumaness Superkings Cricket Club Annual Report

2024

Executive Summary

The year 2024 has been an extraordinary chapter in the journey of the Drumaness Superkings Cricket Club, characterized by notable accomplishments and a steadfast dedication to our local cricketing community. Our unwavering commitment to fostering talent and promoting the spirit of cricket has not only bolstered our competitive performance but has also significantly strengthened our community relationships, making cricket more accessible and enjoyable for all.

Club Overview

Mission Statement: Our mission is to advocate for the sport of cricket across all levels within our community, instilling the core values of sportsmanship, teamwork, and inclusiveness among our members.

Vision Statement: We envision Drumaness Superkings Cricket Club as the leading cricket club in the region, acclaimed for our commitment to excellence both on the field and in our community endeavours

Operational Review

Throughout the year, the club proudly fielded 5 teams:

2x Senior Men's Team,

U11s and U13s Junior Teams, and

Women's Team

Remarkable Achievements:

The Senior Men's 1st team displayed outstanding skill and teamwork, successfully advancing to the Section 1 of the Northern Cricket Union league—a testament to their hard work and determination.

In 2024 the club established its first ever juniors and women's cricket teams

Junior Teams: Involved in competitive league competition in u11s and u15s

Women's Team: Involved in competitive league competition

Community Engagement

In our efforts to engage with the local community, we organized a series of cricket camps tailored for youth participants, such as our Summer Youth Academy resulting in an impressive 30% increase in overall participation, thereby inspiring a new generation of young cricketers and promoting the sport's growth.

Future Outlook

As we look ahead to the upcoming year of 2025, our plans include the ambitious expansion of our youth programs and enhancements to our club facilities to better serve our members and the broader community. We are also actively pursuing further sponsorship opportunities to support our team development initiatives and community outreach projects.

Officers' and Management Committee's responsibility for the financial statements

The Registration of Clubs (NI) Order 1996 requires officers and management committee to prepare an annual statement of accounts which gives a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the club and of the income and expenditure of the club for that financial year. In preparing the statement of accounts the officers and committee members are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the club will continue in business

The officers and management committee are also responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the club and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Registration of Clubs (Accounts) Regulations (NI) 1997. They also are responsible for safeguarding the assets of the club and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Honorary Treasurer

Date: 31.03.24

We have independently examined the income and expenditure accounts of Drumaness SuperKings Cricket Club.

This report is made solely to the club's members, as a body, in accordance with Article 4 of the Registration of Clubs (Accounts) Regulations (NI) 1997. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the club's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the club and the club's members as a body, for our work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of committee of management and auditor

As explained more fully in the Committee of Management's Responsibilities Statement set out on page 1, the Committee of Management is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements which give a true and fair view. Our responsibility is to examine and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with applicable law.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

Opinion on financial statements

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the club's affairs as at 31st March 2024, and of its income and expenditure for the year then ended; and
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice applicable to Smaller Entities, and the Registration of Clubs (Accounts) Regulations (NI) 1997.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Registration of Clubs (Accounts) Regulations (NI) 1997 require us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- proper books of account have not been kept by the club in accordance with the requirements of the legislation,
- a satisfactory system of control over transactions has been maintained by the club in accordance with the requirements of the legislation,
- the revenue account of the other accounts (if any) to which our report relates, and the balance sheet are not in agreement with the books of account of the club,
- we have not obtained all of the information and explanations we require for our examination
