Activities

Purposes: Keady Celtic Football Club's objects are exclusively charitable (in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008) and for the benefit of the public without distinction of gender, sexual orientation, age, race, ethnicity, or political, religious or other opinion. Due to the location of the club, the 'area of benefit' is primarily (but not exclusively) the Armagh District Electoral Area (DEA). Our purposes are: 1. To promote community participation in the playing of amateur football through the provision of facilities, training and equipment. 2. To provide access to coaching and competitive opportunities in amateur football. 3. To encourage, promote and assist in the development of an improved standard of physical fitness and mental health in all players and coaches (healthy bodies and minds). 4. To ensure a duty of care to all members of the club. 5. To deliver the above in a way that is fair to everyone who is, or wishes to be, a member of the club.

What the charity does: The advancement of amateur sport

How the charity works: Sport/recreation

Who the charity helps: General public, General public, Men, Mental health, Volunteers, Youth (14-25 year olds)
