

Kingdom Youth Club
Trustees' Report (continued)
For The Year Ended 30 June 2025

Other Information

Additional Note

Volunteers

Kingdom Youth Club relies heavily on the support and commitment of volunteers. Volunteers assist with the organisation and delivery of weekly activities, supervision of sessions, and general support for young people attending the club.

The trustees would like to express their sincere thanks to all volunteers who generously give their time and energy to support the club's work.

All volunteers involved with the club follow safeguarding procedures to ensure the safety and wellbeing of young people.

Safeguarding

The safety and wellbeing of young people is a priority for Kingdom Youth Club. The charity has safeguarding policies and procedures in place to ensure that all activities are carried out in a safe and supportive environment.

Volunteers and leaders working with young people are expected to follow safeguarding guidelines and appropriate checks are carried out where required.

Plans for the Future

The trustees plan to continue developing the work of Kingdom Youth Club by expanding activities and increasing opportunities for young people in the community.

Future plans include:

- Increasing participation and outreach to more young people
- Introducing additional workshops and development activities
- Strengthening partnerships with community organisations
- Securing further funding to support the club's long-term sustainability

The trustees remain committed to supporting young people and ensuring that the club continues to provide a positive and welcoming environment.
