Activities

Purposes: Improve the overall quality of life for elderly individuals through tailored programs and services that address their physical, emotional, and social well-being. Empower seniors to maintain independence and autonomy in their daily lives, providing assistance and resources that enable them to age gracefully in their chosen living environment. Create a sense of community among seniors by organising social activities, support groups, and events, encouraging social interaction and reducing isolation and loneliness. Support the health of elderly individuals through healthcare coordination, wellness programs, and initiatives that promote preventive care, nutrition, and physical fitness. Assist families in understanding and navigating the challenges of caring for ageing loved ones, offering resources, educational programs, and counselling services to enhance their caregiving abilities. Provide financial support and guidance to seniors in need, helping them access available benefits, navigate economic challenges, and secure a stable living environment. Raise awareness about eldercare issues within the community through educational seminars, workshops, and outreach programs, fostering a greater understanding of the needs and challenges faced by seniors. Ensure seniors access essential services such as transportation, healthcare, and housing, facilitating a seamless and supportive environment for their daily lives. Offer respite care services for family caregivers, providing temporary relief and support to ensure the well-being of both caregivers and their elderly loved ones. Advocate for policies promoting seniors' rights and well-being, actively engaging with local and national authorities to influence positive change in the eldercare landscape. Support and conduct research initiatives to advance the understanding of ageing-related issues, promote innovative solutions, and continuously improve the delivery of eldercare services.
