Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of health', 'the advancement of human rights, conflict resolution or reconciliation'

What the charity does: Epilepsy Scotland works to overcome the significant and widespread lack of understanding of epilepsy and the disproportionate injustice experienced by those living with epilepsy or associated conditions. We do this by administering to the needs of individuals with epilepsy and associated conditions, improving wellbeing, campaigning to advance healthcare focusing on epilepsy, raising awareness of epilepsy and associated conditions and accessing high quality education and appropriate support as well as providing information, education, guidance, advice, support, and professional training.

Beneficiaries: 'People with disabilities or health problems', 'Other defined groups', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community', 'Other charities or voluntary bodies'

Objectives: To relieve the needs of individuals with epilepsy and/or associated conditions, within Scotland. To advance the health and wellbeing of individuals with epilepsy and/or associated conditions, within Scotland. To advance education and, in particular, to increase public knowledge and awareness of epilepsy and associated issues through the provision of education, training and advice
