ST AYLE PARISH CHURCH OF SCOTLAND, ANSTRUTHER AND CELLARDYKE

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

The Church is an unincorporated charity administered in accordance with the terms of the Unitary Constitution.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

Members of the Kirk Session are the Charity Trustees. The Kirk Session members are the Elders of the Church and are chosen from those members of the Church who are considered to have the appropriate gifts and skills. The Minister, who is a member of the Kirk Session, is elected by the congregation and inducted by the Presbytery.

Organisational Structure

The Kirk Session is responsible for both the spiritual and temporal affairs of the Church. It is chaired by the Minister or Interim Moderator and meets, as required, at least four times a year as well as joint meetings with our linked charge of Crail Parish Church. Certain responsibilities are delegated to committees. Presently these are Finance, Property, Social/fundraising, Technology/administration, Pastoral, Safeguarding, Outreach, Worship/prayer, Children's Ministry.

Objectives and Activities

The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine, Reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in polity. It exists to glorify God and to work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world. As a National Church, it acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of religion to the people in every parish of Scotland through a territorial ministry. It cooperates with other churches in various ecumenical bodies in Scotland and beyond.

The Congregation has continued to worship each week, led on the vast majority of occasions, by the excellent group of retired ministers who have so willingly and effectively engaged with the congregation in recent years.

On some occasions Café Church has been a feature and this has worked well and been appreciated by the members. One service incorporated Readers' Theatre.

Services on the whole have been well attended with numbers (in the region of 80 plus) now approaching the attendance before the Covid lockdowns and subsequent restrictions.

Some of the services drew attendance from the wider community, including the Sea Queen Festival service in Cellardyke and the Harbour Service in a marquee on the Harbour area followed by a lunch provided by the congregation for all who had attended. The lunch also expressed the appreciation of the St Ayle congregation members of the team of ministers who have sustained regular worship in St Ayle and Crail.

The congregation maintained its tradition of congregational hospitality, and the fundraising events which always draw considerable support from the community were well attended. The Coffee Mornings, Strawberry Tea and Christmas Coffee Morning all provide much needed funds for the ongoing work of the congregation and allow interaction with those in the community who are not involved in the life of the congregation. Refreshments are provided after Sunday morning worship for a time of fellowship and is an opportunity to welcome visitors and people who have moved into the area.

Membership numbers have been affected by the deaths of some faithful members and their lives and witness have been celebrated in funeral services in the Church. In 2024, several members lost close relatives and were supported by the care and concern of the members of the congregation.

The Annual Bereavement Service took place in Advent with a number of families attending who had been bereaved in recent times.

Weddings, funerals, and baptisms are 'evangelical opportunities' due to the way people are treated by the members. Regularly there are reports of how much those who attend without a direct link to the congregation are made welcome by the members of the congregation.

The Guild has continued to meet fortnightly in the afternoon and has a good regular attendance of around 35 who enjoy a varied programme of speakers. Funds are raised with the afternoon gatherings in the winter and contribute to the Church and the Guild National Projects.

The Prayer Group, which is a joint endeavour with Crail, and started in the ministry of the [REDACTED] continues to meet on a Thursday morning in Anstruther Church with a regular attendance of 15 people each week.

The Tuesday Couthie Cuppa has maintained its characteristic lively membership of those who come for tea and coffee and a chat in Anstruther each week. While no charge is made, the participants are generous and donations from the group go to worthy causes and congregational funds.

The Foodbank continues to benefit from substantial financial support and physical donations from people throughout the East Neuk. The people who avail themselves of the services of the Foodbank are all made most welcome by [REDACTED] and his group of volunteers on the two days of opening in Anstruther. Sadly, the need is not declining and new participants have been added in the last year. A drop-in facility is available during Foodbank hours and many come in for warmth, refreshments and social contact.

Despite the deaths of some of the original attenders of the RVS lunch, the group continues to draw about 30 or so every week, summer and winter, and sometimes more, as family and holidays allow. The teams of volunteers are enthusiastic and energetic in their work serving, clearing up and talking to those who attend. While St Ayle is the biggest and the original location of this fine initiative, there are now 14 such clubs, based on the St Ayle model, in Fife. The school kitchens provide the food each week, and while the lunch guests pay a sum towards the cost, the RVS is in receipt of a grant from Fife Council, to defray some of the expenses.

For some years the congregation has been pleased to grant the use of the Cellardyke building on the second Sunday of each month to the members of the Romanian worshipping community. Now that there is a Church purchased in Kirkcaldy for the Romanians this arrangement has ceased, but it is hoped that communication and cooperation with the Romanian congregation will continue.

The Puppet Ministry for schools and care homes has brought great pleasure to many, including those who offer their time and enthusiasm as puppeteers. On some occasions, one of the puppets has been a dialogue partner in the regular Sunday service at St Ayle.

The Midway Club meets in Cellardyke every Monday night. It is attended by those who perceive themselves as 'midway' through life, and a lot of enjoyment, fun, laughter and conversation characterises the meetings. Some who attend regularly are not members of the congregation but engage in the games and assist in raising the funds which supplied a new video screen for Anstruther. Relationships are being nurtured in this informal setting.

Property

The Presbytery Buildings Officer has been most helpful and he has highlighted a range of works, some more urgent than others, in both Anstruther and Cellardyke [REDACTED] as Property Convener, has engaged with the Presbytery Buildings Officer and the Kirk Session has authorised exploration of the most appropriate means of addressing the urgent work required as a priority. The Property team of the congregation have invested many hours themselves as volunteers in the maintenance and improvement of the buildings. Their efforts are much appreciated by the congregation.

Community Occasional Events

The congregation invited Professor June Andrews to speak on dementia at an evening meeting which was open to all in the area.

The church premises were made available to the Children's choir in summer, the First Responders Training, and other organisations for fundraising purposes.

On several occasions the Church buildings were used as concert venues for local music groups.

Both buildings are used for receptions after funeral services, and Cellardyke is the venue for end of term services which provide the children and parents of the area with an experience of the worship of the Church and are supported by the Elders as stewards.

Similarly, the Elders are happy to be present when visits are arranged by preschool groups to the church buildings as part of their learning for life.

Achievements and Performance

With the death, after a period of illness, of the faithful Treasurer, [REDACTED] the congregation faced a considerable challenge to find a means of replacing her as she had exercised such a thorough and comprehensive overview of the income and expenditure of the congregation. Thankfully, it was possible to recruit a team of volunteers to take over the various functions required. This has demanded a huge amount of learning and investment of time and energy, supported and guided by the Treasurer of the Presbytery, [REDACTED]. In 2025, the management of all financial matters with relationship to HMRC and Gift Aid, and the central Church will be developed further.

The finances of the congregation continue to be healthy, but with the Giving to Grow contributions, the payment of Presbytery dues, and two distinct buildings to maintain, there is always work and expenditure involved. While regular committed donations, augmented by Gift Aid, are appreciated, the Annual Givings Day in 2024 continued to obtain a magnificent and significant response of £10,000. Gift Aid is encouraged and benefits the Church Accounts regularly.

As and when appropriate, the Kirk Session on behalf of the congregation authorises collection or donations to local and national charities. In 2024, the following received assistance from St Ayle: Erskine Appeal (at Remembrance), Christian Aid, Home Start, First Responders Christmas Day Lunch effort, and Adopt a Child. Emergency Appeals, when required, also receive a generous response.

Financial Review

The total income during the year amounted to £102,540 (2023 - £132,746) of which £74,210 (2023 - £80,855) was unrestricted, £27,886 (2023 - £51,477) restricted and £444 (2023 - £414) Endowment.

Total expenditure for the year was £83,612 (2023 - £93,461) with £57,114 (2023 - £53,771) relating to the unrestricted general and designated funds. A major portion of the expenditure within the general fund relates to the requirements of the Giving to Grow allocation of £23,844 (2023 £22,512).

This resulted in a surplus for the year on the general and designated funds of £18,473 (2023 - £27,084), on restricted funds a surplus of £61 (2023 £12,325) and on endowment funds a surplus of £394 (2023 deficit of £124).

Reserves Policy

At the end of the year £117,852 (2023 - £99,379) of cash in the bank was held in unrestricted funds. In addition, £79,702 (2023 - £79,641) was held in restricted funds, mainly in the Cellardyke Guild and East Neuk Foodbank Account, and £5,735 (2023 - £5,341) held in endowment funds. A further £19,494 (2023 - £18,901) was held in investments of which £16,176 (2023 - £15,615) are unrestricted and £3,318 (2023 - £3,288) are endowment.

The Trustees' adopt a prudent policy and retains unrestricted reserves at a level such that, in the event of a sudden drop in income, the Church will be able to support its current level of activities for a period of at least twelve months, while replacement income is sought.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT
TO THE TRUSTEES OF ST AYLE PARISH CHURCH OF SCOTLAND,
ANSTRUTHER AND CELLARDYKE

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024 which are set out on pages 7 to 13.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustees Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

This report is made to the Trustees, as a body, in accordance with the terms of my engagement. My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the Trustees those matters I am required to state to them in an Independent Examiner's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Charity and the Trustees for my work or for this report.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

1 Accounting Policies

The principal accounting policies, which have been applied consistently in the current period in dealing with items which are considered material to the accounts, are set out below.

Basis of Preparation

The financial statements have been prepared on the Receipts and Payments basis in accordance with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

The comparative figures for the year to 31 December 2023 have been restated to include the balance held at 31 December 2024 of £3,260 in a general deposit fund with the Church of Scotland Investors Trust as part of the bank and cash balance. This was previously included in the year end valuation of the Investments.

Funds

Funds are classified as either restricted funds or unrestricted funds, defined as follows:

Restricted funds are funds subject to specific requirements as to their use which may be declared by the donor or with their authority or created through legal processes, but still within the wider objects of the charity.

Unrestricted funds are expendable at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the objects of the charity. If parts of the unrestricted funds are earmarked at the discretion of the trustees for a particular purpose, they are designated as a separate fund. This designation has an administrative purpose only and does not legally restrict the trustees' discretion to apply the fund.

Taxation

St Ayle Parish Church of Scotland, Anstruther and Cellardyke is recognised as a charity for the purposes of applicable taxation legislation and is therefore not subject to taxation on its charitable activities. The charity is not registered for VAT and payments made therefore include irrecoverable input VAT.

4 Minister's stipend

All Church of Scotland congregations contribute to the National Stipend Fund which bears the costs of all ministers' stipends and employer's contributions for national insurance, pension and housing and loan fund. Ministers' stipends are paid in accordance with the national stipend scale, which is related to years of service. For the year under review the minimum stipend was £31,642 and the maximum stipend (in the fifth and subsequent years of service) £38,884.

5 Trustee expenses, remuneration and related party transactions

5.1 During the year expenses of £816 were paid to one trustee for travel, pulpit supply, and other expenses (2023 £528).

5.2 No charity trustee, or persons connected to a trustee, received remuneration in the year (2023 - nil).

5.3 There were no transactions with trustees or persons connected with trustees during the year (2023 - nil).
