Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of religion', 'the promotion of religious or racial harmony'

What the charity does: Our aims are to: • provide education and information about faith. • do this via audio broadcasting. and • support this with conferences, free training courses and other public or private meetings considered appropriate for the purposes of the above aims. We do this by: • producing and recording audio programmes and podcasts. • engaging with responses from our listeners. making available, on request, free broadcasting training opportunities to young people. • providing opportunities for involvement in making podcasts to student musicians and singers. The charity's activities continue to be undertaken by a wholly voluntary team who receive no remuneration. All financial donations received, from individuals, organisations or trusts, therefore go directly to support the core activities of the charity.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The Fellowship shall be non-profit making and shall have the following objects, all of a charitable nature:- (a) To promote the propagation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ by modern methods of communication, including radio and television, and by other such means as the Fellowship may determine. (b) To prepare, produce and record regular broadcasts for transmission over Missionary, Religious and Commercial Radio and Television Stations throughout the world, and where necessary purchasing time on these stations. (c) To organise such public meetings as are considered by the Fellowship to be necessary for the fulfilment of paragraph (a) and (b) of this clause.
