The trustees present their reports and accounts for the year ended 31 December 2024. The legal and administrative information set out on page 3 forms part of this report. The accounts comply with current statutory requirements.

Governing document

The Church is administered in accordance with the terms of the Unitary Constitution.

Recruitment and appointment of trustees

Members of the Kirk Session are the charity trustees. The Kirk Session members are the elders of the church and are chosen from those members of the church who are considered to have the appropriate gifts and skills.

Organisation Structure

The Kirk Session, which is responsible for spiritual affairs within the church, as well as all matters relating to the upkeep and smooth running of the church, is moderated by the Minister, Rev John Gow. A Property and Finance Group reports to Session as do other Office Bearers covering areas of responsibility such as Safeguarding, Church Roll and Presbytery matters.

Objectives and Activities

The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine, Reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in polity. It exists to glorify God and to work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world. As a national Church, it acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of religion to the people in every parish of Scotland through a territorial ministry. It co-operates with other Churches in various ecumenical bodies in Scotland and beyond.

At the end of 2024 the Church roll stood at 220. Worship services were held at 10.30am each Sunday with services also streamed live via the Church website and YouTube channel. In person attendances averaged 35-40, while online viewership averaged a similar number. Services were also made available on DVD and CD for those unable to attend regular worship. Church Family News newsletters were delivered on a weekly basis to those church members who expressed a desire to receive them, while the bi-monthly Focus magazine was also made widely available. Prayer gatherings were held each Monday and a confidential prayer ministry continued throughout the year on email. The church flower ministry also continued, continued, delivering to the ill, the bereaved and those celebrating special occasions. 19 funerals were held during 2024, there were no weddings or baptisms.

Achievements and Performance

In addition to the regular weekly diet of worship additional services were held at Easter - on the evening of Good Friday and a 'sunrise' service at St Comb's well on Easter Sunday. Harvest was celebrated in October and Remembrance Day in November (with services in Portsoy and Fordyce War Memorials). During the period of Advent and Christmas additional services included a 'Remembering' service for those missing loved ones, a well-attended Watchnight service on Christmas Eve and an informal but warmly received Christmas morning service. World Day of Prayer was marked by a special service in March, presented in partnership with members of the Banff Churches ecumenical group. Holy Communion was celebrated in church and at Macrae Court sheltered housing in May and November and the minister also carried out several Home Communion services for those unable to come to church. Monthly services were held for residents of Durnhythe Nursing Home in Portsoy. The Minister was also invited to speak to P6/7 in Portsoy Primary School during Advent.

On two occasions in 2024 morning worship on Sunday took the form of a 'Café Church' service, which was well-received by an enhanced congregation. Also, continuing in preparation towards the upcoming unification with Cullen & Deskford and Cornhill & Ordiquhill parishes, monthly joint services were held in Portsoy, Cullen and Cornhill churches.

Regular social gatherings continued throughout the year. The regular Tuesday Coffee and Company continued to be successful with donations from its average attendance of 100+ providing an essential boost to church finances, as well as to supported charities. While the Friday Well Café (predominantly for parents and pre-school children but open to all) provided a valuable space for friendship and fun. 'Movie Monday' which had been introduced in 2023, was well-supported through the winter months of 2024, and 'Link Ladies' continued to be a source of fellowship and learning for both church members and non-members.

Financial Review

The church's two main sources of income are: general income generated by the congregation and income from various bequests and trusts. General income generated by the congregation comprises weekly offerings, Gift Aid donation, personal donation, contributions from Church organisations, tax recovered from the Inland Revenue, rental of the Church Centre and payments from the renewable heat initiative.

Portsoy Church, Church of Scotland

A £8,881 surplus is recorded for 2024 in terms of receipts against payments. This year we are pleased to report a slight increase in donations. In the light of expected significant increases in the Giving to Grow contributions in 2026 the surplus does provide some flexibility with managing the budget moving forward.

Reserve Policy

The broad principle that we followed was to maintain the capital values of our investments and other capital held in various Bequests and trusts and to use the accrued income to enable community charitable giving, fund development projects and support the work of the Church as appropriate.

Investment Policy and Performance

Investments are mostly managed by Fund Managers.

Structure, Governance and Management

The congregation is a registered charity number SC000522 and is administered in accordance with the Model Deed of Constitution (or Deed of Constitution (Unitary Form) and is a subject to the Acts and Regulations of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Members of the Kirk Session are the charity trustees. The Kirk Session are the elders of the church and are chosen from those members of the church who are considered to have appropriate gifts and skills. The minister, who is a member of the Kirk Session, is elected by the congregation and inducted by Presbytery. Certain responsibilities are delegated to the Finance and Property Committee as appropriate. The Kirk Session which meets at least four times a year is responsible for the spiritual affairs within the church.

Trustees' Responsibilities in Relation to the Financial Statements

The charity trustees are responsible for preparing a trustees' annual report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

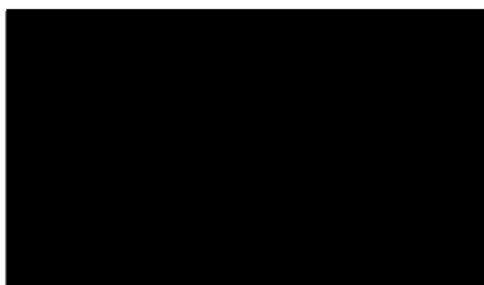

The law applicable to charities in Scotland requires the charity trustees to prepare financial statements for each year which show a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, of the charity for that period. In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- . select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- . make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- . state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- . prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operational existence.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the charity and financial information of the congregation's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Approved by the Trustees and signed on their behalf,

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Portsoy Church

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31st December 2024 which are set out on pages 8 to 13.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

An examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44 (1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
