Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

The Church is administered in accordance with the terms of the Unitary Constitution.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

Members of the Kirk Session are the charity trustees. The Kirk Session members are the elders of the church and are chosen from those members of the church who are considered to have appropriate gifts and skills. The minister, who is a member of the Kirk Session, is elected by the congregation and inducted by Presbytery.

Organisational Structure

The Kirk Session is currently chaired by the Interim Moderator and meets with appropriate committees.

The Kirk Session usually meets six times a year.

Objectives and Activities

The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine, reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in polity. It exists to glorify God and to work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world. As a national Church, it acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of religion to the people in every parish of Scotland through a territorial ministry. It co-operates with other Churches in various ecumenical bodies in Scotland and beyond.

Achievements and Performance

The Church in Campsie continues to preach the Gospel of Christ in faith and belief that Christ's Blessing is open for all.

The Church continues to support its mission financially, and provides facilities to many youth groups within the Parish. The church runs a dementia friendly "Coffee & Chat" group on a monthly basis, which also involves the local primary school. There is also a Guild group that meets fortnightly. The church also runs a, now annual, carol singing event in conjunction with the two primary schools in Lennoxtown.

Financial Review

The financial position of Campsie Parish Church is currently satisfactory.

Free will offering and donations are lower than in the previous year. Fuel costs, whilst higher than last year, are lower than they should be due to a billing issue.

Gift Aid claims for the period from October 2023 to September 2024 were paid in the sum of £4,731. This leaves an approximate amount of £2000 to be claimed for October to December 2024.

The church acknowledges the kind donation of £200 from the Guild and £60 from Kelvin Trefoil Guild.

Reserves Policy

It is the Trustees' policy to hold sufficient reserves to cover expected expenditure, including designated funds. At the year end, the church held unrestricted funds of £36,805 representing about six months expenditure. This represents an acceptable reserve.

The church also holds £3,096 in the current account of a restricted fund for a specific purpose.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees must prepare financial statements for each financial year which give sufficient detail to enable an appreciation of the transactions of the Church during the financial year.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which, on request must reflect the financial position of the Church at that time. This must be done to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) and the Regulations Anent Congregational Finance approved by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland in 2016.

They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and / or detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the Trustees and signed on their behalf,

Session Clerk

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Campsie Parish Church

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31st December 2024 which are set out on pages 7 to 14.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the account in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended), and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended) have not been met, or

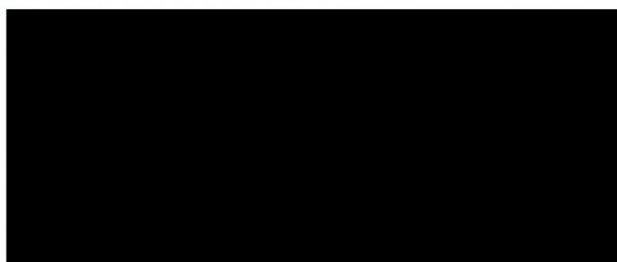

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
