Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations'

Purposes: 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of public participation in sport'

What the charity does: The Charitable Society was formed to support community, recreation & leisure-time facilities that are conducive to the improvement of the conditions of living of the inhabitants of Dalkeith and the surrounding neighborhood thereof, with particular (but not exclusive) reference to such of the inhabitants as are members of the mining community. The charity provides wide ranging support for the local community through leisure and recreational activities, fund raising and social events for all ages. We promote local groups and sporting teams and allow them to use the charity's facilities in partnership with Dalkeith Miners Welfare Society and we provide substantial support to our OAP groups and users. The objects and activities of the charity are set in our constitution, and by providing leisure and recreational activities for our members and the wider community we are fulfilling this obligation. We enhance this with sporting and dance activities and various clubs and groups.

Beneficiaries: 'Older People', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The objects of the Society are to provide facilities for such forms of recreation and other leisure-time occupation as are conducive to the improvement of the conditions of living of the inhabitants of Dalkeith and neighbourhood thereof within the Society's sphere of operations as defined from time to time and in particular (but not exclusively) such of the inhabitants as are members of the Mining Community provided that nothing contained shall authorise the application of the Property to purposes which are not in law charitable. The Society shall not be identified with any party or sect.
