Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of health', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: To provide a physical space and facilities for the villagers of Blebocraigs near Cupar in Fife. The Village Hall is used for activities addressing the physical, social and emotional needs of those within our Community and the surrounding area. These include Pilates and Yoga sessions whilst educational activities include Shakespeare classes and periodic lectures. Social events for the benefit of the Community include theatre productions, apple pressing, film nights, games evenings (aimed at the younger members) and annual participation in the Scottish Open Gardens Scheme. During the winter months, a series of 'Soup Lunches' cater for the older members of the village in particular those who live alone. The proceeds of these lunches have hitherto been gifted to the local food bank for those in need.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: For the purpose of physical and mental training and recreation and social, moral and intellectual development through the medium of reading rooms, recreation rooms, library, lectures, classes, entertainments or recreations or be available for religious services when required by the Minister of the Parish of Kemback, or otherwise as may be found expedient by the inhabitants of the Village of Blebo Craigs in the County of Fife and the surrounding districts, without distinction of sex or of political, religious or other opinions subject to the provisions of these presents.
