Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of health', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: Led by qualified and experienced playleaders, our sessions (for children 2- 5 years) provide a wide variety of stimulation, educational, messy and fun activities following the core elements of the Curriculum of Excellence. We also help to prepare them for their transition to primary school. Everyone is welcome from Langbank and the surrounding areas. Families have the option to stay and play with their child or drop off and return on collection time.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: The aim of the playgroup is to promote the aim of the Scottish Pre-School Playgroups association, which is to advance the education of pre-school children so that they may take a constructive place in the community and also the education of their parents, and in furtherance of that aim, (a) to provide safe and satisfying group play in which parents take part when appropriate. (b) to encourage other charitable activities through which parents may help the children
