Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: Objects and Activities The declaration restricts the operation of the Congregation to religious purposes and limits the use of its assets to such purposes. These being the practice and advancement of Christianity founded on the Holy Bible. The congregation is organised on the basis of scriptural precedent and as otherwise recommended by the Society, with which the Congregation is affiliated. During the year the Congregation has achieved its objective and continued to pursue its purposes by holding regular twice-weekly meetings for the public worship of God and Bible study. Further, most congregation members have assisted by sharing regularly in preaching the good news of God's Kingdom and teaching principles of Christian living including respect for secular authority, persons and property, the maintenance of personal morality and family values, and other facets of practical value

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'
