Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: Camphill Blair Drummond exists to provide residential and day care services for adults with complex learning disabilities. Rooted in the Camphill ethos, we believe in the spiritual uniqueness of every individual and strive to create a community where everyone can flourish. We achieve this by offering meaningful work and activities in workshops such as bakery, pottery, gardening, and media, alongside life skills, drama, sport, and craft. Residents, day participants, volunteers, and staff live and work together, fostering inclusion, dignity, and shared responsibility. Our approach combines therapeutic social care with opportunities for personal growth, ensuring each person contributes to and benefits from a vibrant, supportive environment.

Beneficiaries: 'People with disabilities or health problems'

Objectives: To provide a flexible service for people with learning disabilities, including residential care. This service will provide a safe yet stimulating environment where people live and work, and are encouraged to participate to the best of their ability in daily living activities, work, recreation and community life. to build a community, underpinned by the values of the Camphill Movement, which supports human beings to develop their full potential and in which everyone has something to offer, no matter what their ability. By living, working and growing together community members find fulfilment in life.
