Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: Quarriers is a leading Scottish social care charity delivering services across Scotland, partnering with 17 of the 32 local authorities and each of the 14 health boards. The charity provides person-centred services to thousands of people across all age groups by a diverse service provision. We help people to live independently in their local communities, to contribute as citizens, to nurture the relationships that matter to them, and to create the conditions that will help them flourish. We are driven by strong values rooted in a belief that by giving people support and opportunity, we encourage them to thrive. We offer people practical support so that they can live full and purposeful lives. We seek to amplify the voices of people we support in our campaign for social justice and social inclusion. We are committed to bringing about positive changes in people's lives through direct support and by challenging stigma, poverty and inequality.
