Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: The charity is set up to advance the Kingdom of God. This is particularly in the geographical parish of Dalmeny and South Queensferry. This mission is carried out in a range of ways including regular public worship services, witness and service to the community by way of a range of endeavours including operating two 'cafes' providing warm safe spaces and companionship to attendees. We also provide a number of hot meals to people and families who are struggling. We also run a community fridge. We provide pastoral care through visitation, ministry to local schools, Girls' Brigade and Boys' Brigade companies and a range of stand alone community events. We also work with other churches within the parish and geographically close to the parish to advance the Kingdom of God more broadly.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The advancement of religion.
