Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: St.Ninians Scottish Episcopal Church. is part of the Diocese of Aberdeen and Orkney, part of the Province (Scotland) of the SEC and part of the World wide Anglican Communion. In practical terms at St. Ninians Aberdeen, we gather to Praise and Worship God, providing Christian Teaching, Education, and Discipleship Courses to that end. St.Ninians, is a small number of people with a very big heart. The example of Jesus Christ is used as the blue print of how the Church, its people, Resources and Building should be made available for Public Benefit, aiding and befriending the wider community of which we are part. The Building (church) is located in a multi-deprivation area of Aberdeen. The Building is a warm safe space for anyone in the wider community to gather along with our volunteers e.g. 'Open Tuesday' every week from 11am-3:30pm with friendly blether, refreshments all day, a simple Soup and Sandwich lunch, arts and crafts, board games etc, all free of charge.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The advancement of religion.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention.

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
