Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations, loans, gifts or pensions to individuals','It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations','It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: The Constitution restricts the operation of the Congregation to religious purposes and limits the use of its assets to such purposes, these being the advancement of Christianity as found in the Holy Bible. The Congregation is organised based on scriptural precedent and as otherwise recommended by the Society with which the Congregation is affiliated. During the year the Congregation continues to pursue its purpose by holding twice weekly meetings for the public worship of God and Bible study. Further, most Congregation members share regularly in preaching the Good News of Gods Kingdom and teaching principles of Christian living including respect for secular authority, persons and property, the maintenance of personal morality, family values and other facets of practical Christianity.

Beneficiaries: 'Other defined groups','No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The objects of the said congregation are identified with the purposes of the Society, and are specifically to advance the Christian religion, as practiced by the body of Christian persons known as Jehovah's Witnesses, in the local area,
