Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

Our charity has a Deed of Assumption and Conveyance has been set up for guidance on the aspects of running our community hall which details the responsibilities of the office bearers and trustees.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Trustees are recruited at the AGM each year and encouraged to stay on as elected member of the committee each year. With events through out the year and many folk now working shifts a larger committee of folk are required.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The aim of the hall is to provide a venue which the public can hire either for the own or public events. The trustees & committee will create & host events which are open to the public or provide catering or bar services or other services as required for events hired throughout the year either by ourselves or our team of volunteers.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Throughout the year there were private bookings for a wedding, private parties, community groups as well as ourselves hosting events such as supper nights. Unfortunately due to the weather conditions we were unable to host our 2nd January event.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

During the year we made some renovations to the kitchen with the installation of a new gas cooker and the donation of a steam cooker as well as new gas powered fryer, which will future proof our kitchen for a number of years.

MID YELL PUBLIC HALL

Registered Charity Number SC003312

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31st March 2025 which are set out overleaf.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's qualified statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulationshave not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
