Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: We are set up to deliver a comprehensive annual series of skills building workshops in multimedia arts and crafts photography and IT skills within the East Central area of Glasgow . Our creative workshops and events are provided to local residents free of charge and are aimed at encouraging some of the most marginalised and isolated members of the community to improve their health and wellbeing and take better control of their lives through learning new skills while gaining the confidence and aspirations to play more active role within the community.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Older People', 'People with disabilities or health problems', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: (a) To promote the benefit of the inhabitants of Cranhill and environs without distinction of religion, race, gender or politics, by associating the Local Authorities, Voluntary Organisations and inhabitants in a common effort to advance education and to provide facilities in the interest of social welfare for recreation, cultural and leisure time occupation with the object of improving the conditions of life for the said inhabitants. (b) To promote and establish links with cultural organisations with similar objects elsewhere. (c) To secure the establishment, maintenance and management of a Project Studio for activities promoted by the Project in furtherance of the above objects, or any of them.

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

Cranhill Arts is governed by its constitution which was adopted in 01.07.1981 and last amended 23.06.2020. Our organisation's current charitable status was registered onto the index of Scottish Charities on 23.01.1996.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Our management committee are the trustees of our organisation and normally meet every 6 – 8 weeks. Membership of the committee is open to all members of the community. Four members of the management shall reside within the Glasgow Northeast sector. Trustees are elected at the Annual General Meeting which is usually held in August. The management may co-opt up to 3 additional members if it is in the interests of Cranhill Arts. A Committee member who fails to attend 3 consecutive meetings without registering apologies may be deemed to have resigned from the management committee.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

To promote the benefit of the inhabitants of Cranhill and Greater Glasgow without distinction of religion, race gender or politics, by associating the Local Authorities, Voluntary Organisations and inhabitants in a common effort to advance education and to provide facilities in the interest of social welfare for recreation, cultural and leisure time occupation with the object of improving the conditions of life for the same inhabitants.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Our facilities are extensively used by the local community in its widest sense including people living with a disability / trauma, local refugees, disengaged young people, older people experiencing isolation and people on low incomes. Working with up to 400 people a year our main activities include project based / outreach skills building and taster workshops in multimedia, digital photography visual art, and introductory computer and IT skills. We also run a series of photographic heritage archive training workshops for local residents including the digitisation and online publishing of our Glaswegians photographic archive which consists of some 30.000 images taken across the city between 1989 – 1993.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

During 2024/2025 we aimed to deliver a comprehensive annual series of skills building and therapeutic workshops in multimedia arts and crafts photography and IT skills within the East Central area of Glasgow. Our activities were mainly aimed at encouraging some of the most marginalised and isolated members of the community to improve their health and wellbeing and take better control of their lives through learning new skills while gaining the confidence and aspirations to play more active role within the community.

Between April 2024 and March 2025 Cranhill Arts delivered a total of 42 artistic programs to 354 people which included a total of 407 workshop sessions and 3 open days /taster classes.

31% (109) of the people we worked with had a disability.

21% (76) were young people aged 8-18 years.

36% (126) were local adults.

12% (44) were people aged 65 and over.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Our reserve policy continues to be under review. Working in partnership with our principal funders we aim to retain 2 – 3 months reserves of £4,000 at the end of each financial year.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention.

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
