Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The trust was established under Trust Disposition and Settlement dated 30 May 1961 and registered in the Books of Council and Session on 2 June 1965.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

New Trustees are appointed by the existing Trustees. Their duties will be explained in full and they will also be given a copy of the accounts and OSCR Guidance for Charity Trustees.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The objectives of the trust are:

- 1) To give donations, subscriptions, or grants to or on behalf of such Christian churches of any denomination working at home or abroad or the congregations thereof as the trustee may select, including Christian missionary organisations, whether affiliated with Churches or working independently.
- 2) To give donations, subscriptions, or grants to or on behalf of any institution, society or organisation registered in Great Britain as a charity or any other charitable institutions, societies, or organisations.
- 3) To give donations, subscriptions or grants to or on behalf of such hospitals, infirmaries, nursing homes or other places, institutions or bodies of persons whose principal object is the alleviation of human suffering arising in childbirth or due to somatic, mental or psychological disabilities or diseases or whose principal objects include the prevention or cure of such diseases or of addictions to alcohol or habit-forming drugs or of the ill-effects or ionising radiation of any sort, provided always that the recipients thereof shall not be operating for profit or under the control of the government of any county or the council of any country, burgh or municipality or any board or committee formed.
- 4) To give aid to or on behalf of such persons as the trustees may deem to be deserving, and particularly but without prejudice to the foregoing generality in giving aid towards the further education of persons of any age whose means would not otherwise allow interruption or postponement of gainful employment, and that by giving donations, allowances, grants, bursaries, outfits or other aid for such purpose or purposes as the trustees may in their sole discretion think fit.
- 5) To give donations, subscriptions or grants to or on behalf of any institutions, societies, organisations for bodies or persons which in the opinion of the trustees are likely to promote without profit the study, preservation or public display of Scottish architecture, works of art or objects illustrating the culture of customs of Scotland or the study or recording of the Scottish history, languages, archaeology, old buildings or monuments, provided that it is the intention of the recipient of any such aid to publish openly the results of such study or recording in English and, where appropriate, in Gaelic.
- 6) To give donations, subscriptions, or grants to or on behalf of public funds or organisations promoted for the relief of sufferers through war or national or local disaster or for the relief of refugees.
- 7) To give donations, subscriptions or grants to or on behalf of universities, technical colleges, institutions, societies, organisations or bodies of persons which in the opinion of the trustees are likely to promote the carrying out of scientific or medical research or particularly research in physics or engineering or subjects simultaneously allied to both of these latter subjects including donations, subscriptions or grants to enable such bodies or persons to promote or assist work designed to carry the results of scientific research into the field of technology, provided always that it is the intention of such body of persons receiving aid to publish the results of such research for work in English and that such body of persons shall not be operating for profit or under the control of the government of any country or the council of any country, burgh or municipality or any board or committee formed. Declaring that the power of selection of the beneficiaries and objects from amongst the classes above enumerated shall be wholly vested in the trustees, whose discretion shall be absolute and unqualified and who may allocate the said income amongst the said classes of beneficiaries and objects or all or some of them in such proportions and manner as they think right from time to time, and that such discretionary power shall not be deemed to be limited to beneficiaries and objects in any particular locality or country.
- 8) The trustees are specifically requested to exercise the foregoing power of selection to consider favorably persons, who are resident in Scotland or are of Scottish extraction, discharged prisoners and seafaring persons, whether in training, service or retirement, and in either of the latter two cases wheresoever resident and of whatever nationality and institutions, societies, organisations or bodies of persons which in the opinion of the trustees are likely to promote the assistance of such persons. The trustees are empowered to enter into deeds of covenant or other obligations for payment of donations, subscriptions or grants to any one or more beneficiaries of this trust and that for such amounts and for such periods as the trustees may resolve.

APPENDIX 1

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The trustees have power to invest in such stocks, shares, investments and property in the United Kingdom or abroad as they in their sole discretion think fit. The trustees are advised on investment matters by Investec Wealth & investments whose objective is to achieve a balance between income and capital growth subject to a medium level of risk.

The trust will therefore make donations out of income.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The trust made donations of £60,015 (2024: £98,375) during the year.

The investments of the trust have a market value of £1,558,811 (2024: £1,649,123).

The Trust will make donations in the future out of income.

Financial review

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
