Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the advancement of animal welfare'

What the charity does: Through the organisation of an annual show to provide a platform for the public to come and be educated and to learn at first hand about the methods of land management and animal husbandry To provide and increase awareness for children of the community , thereby broadening their understanding of the natural environment and its integration with farming and food production as a whole Promoting excellence in a wide range of agricultural based activities

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Older People', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: Through the organisation of an annual show, to provide a platform for the public to come and be educated and to learn at firsthand about the methods of land management and animal husbandry through, for example, crop competitions, animal showing classes, demonstrations and the various displays which are accessible to the public at the show. To provide and increase awareness for the children of the community (via competitions and activities) which will ultimately broaden their understanding of the natural environment and its integration with farming and food production as a whole. To further promote art and culture through children?s competitions such as baking and creative art. To promote excellence in a wide range of agricultural based activities e.g. sheep shearing and the production of quality livestock which are only achievable through high standards of crop husbandry and animal welfare. To consider all reasonable requests for Sponsorship or Patronage associated with the furtherance of agricultural culture and heritage, and the development of agricultural skills within the UK and overseas. (e.g. Sponsorship of a competitor at the World Ploughing Championships in New Zealand in 2010).The promotion of good animal husbandry through the organisation of livestock classes which are on public exhibition and which are further judged at the Show. The animals on show are from local farms and in prime condition and will include most types of farm animals (cattle, sheep, goats, horses) as well as gun dogs and working collies. Demonstrations of good husbandry will also include, for e.g. sheep shearing and horse shoeing. To promote and develop the protection, conservation and improvement of the physical and natural environment and to further promote companies whose activities may further this and all other objectives here listed. To establish and/or support any other charitable purpose falling within the Associations objectives

Achievements and Performance

The Association`s annual show –“ The Angus Show” was held at the Brechin site ..

Financial Review

The Association made a small profit prior to the purchase of a storage container

The only person who received payment in any form was the Secretary/ Treasurer - [REDACTED], who received a total of £ 8400 in respect of all aspects of her service provision

Reserves Policy

At the year end the Association had a balance of unrestricted funds amounting to £69188 these funds are sufficient to.

1. provide the working capital required to stage the annual Angus Show
2. provide the Committee Members with the confidence that should, as has happened in the past, the Annual Show be overcome by events out with the control of the Committee, and little or no income be generated by the Show, there are sufficient funds to pay the creditors of the Association, without recourse to the personal assets of the Members of the Committee

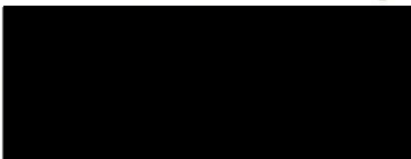

The Association also held £250 of restricted funds which have been provided for the purposes of the Late Archibald A Whyte`s Prize Fund

Year ended 30th September 2024

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The Members of the Committee must prepare financial statements which give sufficient detail to enable an appreciation of the transactions of the Association during the financial year. The Members of the Committee are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which, on request, must reflect the financial position of the Association at that time. This must be done to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Association and must take reasonable steps for the prevention and/or detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the Trustees and signed on their behalf,

Chairman

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of the Angus Agricultural Association

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 30th September 2024 which are set out on pages 7 to 11

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

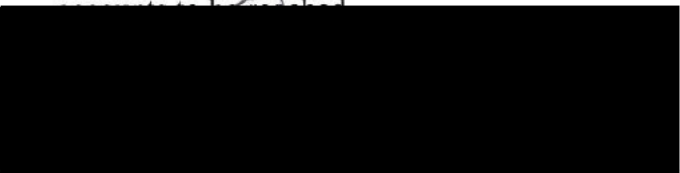

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the
