Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: To glorify God and to work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world. The church holds one service of divine worship each week Our parish is designated a Priority Area congregation. The majority of the outreach to the local community is generated through the activities of the Development/Family Worker. Various groups are accommodated within the church premises including a Disabled Music Group, Teddy Bear Tots parents and carers group and a Woman's Exercise Group. Our Wilson Hall is opened one afternoon once a week offering food, warmth and company to local people. Contact with other groups from the community is maintained through their use of the Dalmilling premises. These include a uniformed organisation, a dance school, club and families from the wider community who use the venue for various activities.
