Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: Presentation and preservation of the artefacts and history of Grantown on Spey

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: 1. Establish a museum for the public display and interpretation of material and exhibits relating to the history of Grantown-on-Spey and the River Spey and such other subjects as the Trustees in their absolute discretion may determine to enable the trust to carry out all the lawful functions of a museum. 2. Hold exhibitions from time to time to display to the public material and exhibits relating to the history of Grantown-On-Spey and the River Spey or relating to such other subjects as the trustees may determine 3. Acquire by purchase, gift, bequest, loan or otherwise, material, exhibits, items and artefacts for display to the public at the museum 4. Display the material, exhibits, items and artefacts regularly to the public and to publicise them, and if the trustees think fit, permit loan of specimens to other museums for exhibition or research, with all necessary safeguards.
