Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*] 1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or 2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes	The Millar-Mackenzie Trust was founded in 1958 with a broad aim of contributing to “the furtherance of the science of mental health”. Over the years, the trust fund has been used in a variety of ways, and, in recent years, the fund has focused mainly on supporting research activities and further training for professionals in Mental Health.
Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects	Grants are awarded to applicants who the Trustees believe can assist in the furtherance of mental health issues who might find it difficult to attract funding for research projects and education and which might otherwise be undeveloped.

APPENDIX 1

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Trustees have traditionally adopted a balanced approach to preservation of Capital and generation of Revenue which is maintained but following a review of investments and recognising the poor return on cash reserves have in recent years agreed that revenue be reinvested with funds withdrawn as appropriate to meet suitable Grant Applications
