Governing document

The charity is an unincorporated association, the purpose and administration arrangements are set out in its constitution.

We are affiliated to the World Wide Church of God that has its headquarters in Cleveland, Tennessee, USA.

Charitable purposes

The prevention or relief of poverty. The advancement of education, religion, health, citizenship or community development, human rights, and conflict resolution or reconciliation. The promotion of religious or racial harmony, equality and diversity. The relief of those in need by reason of age, ill health, disability, financial hardship, or other disadvantage.

Activities and achievements

As an organisation, the Church of God Scotland is actively involved in the training of new leaders for the ministry of the Gospel. This involves charitable and social work both in Scotland and other countries. For example, local community projects, support groups, youth work, as well as other major productive contributions to their local community.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE CHURCH OF GOD SCOTLAND

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 October 2025, which are set out on pages 2, 3, and 4.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under Section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiners statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiners statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention,

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and to prepare accounts with accord with the accounting records and comply with regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
