Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: The Declaration restricts the operation of the Congregation to religious purposes and limits the use of its assets to such purposes, these being the practice and advancement of Christianity founded on the Holy Bible. The Congregation is organised on the basis of scriptural precedent and as otherwise recommended by the Society with which the Congregation is affiliated. During the year the congregation has achieved its objects and continued to pursue its purposes by holding regular twice-weekly meetings for the public worship of God and Bible study. Further, most congregation members have assisted by sharing regularly in preaching the good news of God's Kingdom and teaching principles of Christian living including respect for secular authority, persons and property. the maintenance of personal morality and family values. and other facets of practical Christianity.

Beneficiaries: 'Other defined groups','No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The objects of the said congregation are identified with the purposes of the Society, and are specifically to advance the Christian religion, as practiced by the body of Christian persons known as Jehovah's Witnesses, in the local area
