Airdrie Reformed Presbyterian Church

Report of the Trustees for the Year Ended 31 December 2024

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Charitable Purpose

To promote the advancement of religion and to bring relief to those in need whether that be from old age, infirmity, disability or other disadvantages.

Activities

During the year church services were held weekly and a weekly house visitation programme was carried out to housebound members. Financial and practical help was also given to meet the needs of other charities and also channel support to those in the community who from time to time need support either financially or by deployment of Human Resources. Friday night Kid's and Youth Clubs were held throughout the year. A Drop In Cafe is run during the winter months on Monday nights to provide meals to those in the community struggling with the cost of living crisis.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

Achievements

As in previous years, much resources were deployed in work among the young people with various activities for those ages three through to young men and women in their twenties.

The importance of mission work plays a vital role in the mission of the church and young people from early teens and upwards are encouraged to participate in missions both at home and overseas.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Trustee Remuneration

Salary totalling £29,548 (2023: £27,787) during the year was paid to Trustees.

Contributions by Trustees

During the year Trustees contributed £16,955 (2023: £12,627) to unrestricted Church funds.

Financial Review

The aim of the charity is not to have large sums of money in reserve but to spend the money wisely in promoting a sound based church ministry within the community. Coupled with this aim is the need to build up reserves for dealing with future maintenance of church buildings.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Session

The Trustees present their annual report and financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December, 2024. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in note 1 to the accounts and comply with the charity's trust deed, the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland published on 16 July 2014. The Trustees have opted to prepare fully accrued accounts.

The Church is governed by Session made up of elders and the minister. Session is responsible for all organisational aspects of the work of the Church within the congregation, with the congregation being fully autonomous with regards to its finances and property. The congregation is responsible to its Session. The congregation is responsible to its witness of the church in the local community. The Session is responsible for the spiritual oversight of the congregation and for the entire care of the congregation.

Presbytery

Oversight of the Session and congregation is exercised by the Presbytery, which consists of the minister and elders of the Church and is responsible for directing the affairs of the Church in relation to its work and witness. The good order and discipline of the Church is governed by the Book of Church Government of the RPCS. The congregation is subject to the control of Presbytery. Presbytery has the responsibility of dealing with matters relating to the confession of faith in the Church, setting out in detail the order and government of the Church, and also dealing with the overall planning and strategy in the realms of finance and mission.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Airdrie Reformed Presyterian Church

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Airdrie Reformed Presyterian Church

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of Airdrie Reformed Presyterian Church (the Trust) for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Notes to the Financial Statements for the Year Ended 31 December 2024

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charity, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Charities Act 2011. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, with the exception of investments which are included at market value.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Grants offered subject to conditions which have not been met at the year end date are noted as a commitment but not accrued as expenditure.

Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

Fixtures and fittings	- 25% on reducing balance
Motor vehicles	- 25% on reducing balance
Computer equipment	- 25% on reducing balance

Taxation

The charity is exempt from tax on its charitable activities.

Hire purchase and leasing commitments

Rentals paid under operating leases are charged to the Statement of Financial Activities on a straight line basis over the period of the lease.

Pension costs and other post-retirement benefits

The charity operates a defined contribution pension scheme. Contributions payable to the charity's pension scheme are charged to the Statement of Financial Activities in the period to which they relate.
