Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

- (a) To promote the well-being of the residents in the Culter District and to provide facilities in the interest of social welfare for recreation and leisure time occupation.
- (b) To establish, maintain and manage a Community Centre for activities promoted by the Association and its constituent members.
- (c) To make provision for the carrying out of the above objects or any of them and for the general administration of the Association and to carry out the said objects conjunctly or any one or more of them independently as may be desired.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Daytime supervised care providing recreation, learning and co-ordination skills for pre-school children.
 Clubs including youth, seniors, bridge, mah jong, lego.
 Facilities for dance, drama, film, fitness and well-being.
 Community events e.g. Flower Show, Panto, Burns Suppers.
 Community Resilience and emergency reception centre.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Continued maintenance and repair of the building and grounds. Good performance in managing costs while maintaining the facilities in a condition which is attractive to users. Financially stable. Surplus from previous years was used to carry out long term repairs, resulting in a deficit for the year.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Bank balances at end 2024 totalled £70k, including £9k held as Restricted Funds. This is considered to be a healthy level of reserves which allows the CDCA to be somewhat resilient to small annual deficits and to unforeseen financial issues.

Details of any deficit

A deficit of £19k was generated in 2024, due to planned long term repairs carried out.

Donated facilities and services (if any)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*] 1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and • to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or 2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
