Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations', 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: We have been supporting Scottish housing associations, housing co-operatives and community projects with a link to housing since 1979. We cover our running costs by providing a paid for fund management service. We rely on fundraising to enable us to continue distributing small grants. All additional income raised through either business activities or service provision is awarded to community projects through our Small Grant fund. Our key activities are: Fund Management Best Practice and Learning Small Grants Community Benefits in Procurement Advice on request

Beneficiaries: 'Other defined groups'

Objectives: 4.1.1 to advance citizenship and community development and promote for the benefit of the community in Scotland social housing and community-based projects, through the provision of financial assistance and other forms of support to providers of social housing. community and voluntary organisations. social enterprises that have a close link to, or are supported by providers of social housing. and organisations that further community benefits purposes. 4.1.2 to advance and promote the education of all organisations, bodies and persons involved in the provision of social housing and of all tenants, associated members and users within the voluntary and social housing movement in Scotland through the provision of financial support for training and apprenticeships. and 4.1.3 to relieve those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability,
