Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: The 28th Braid Scouts Group exists to provide young people with positive social and learning activities within the structured programme of the Scouts organisation. Young people learn to be responsible, socially aware, helpful and to learn new skills through new experiences. The subscriptions paid by parents and carers enable us to fund these activities.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: Scouting exists to actively engage and support young people in their personal development, empowering them to make a positive contribution to society
