Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: The objects of the Trust are to: (a) maintain the Museum at the range of buildings known as St Ayles, Harbourhead, Anstruther, Fife or any other buildings as hereinafter provided wherein to bring together, hold, adequately house, conserve and document a Collection of Specimens being of historical, artistic or scientific importance and all associated with the Scottish Fisheries Industry. (b) acquire by purchase or otherwise, or to take on or lease and thereafter restore, rebuild and maintain the said subjects know as St Ayles, Anstruther and any other building contiguous or adjacent thereto. (c) advance and promote the education of the general public. (d) stimulate public interest in the Museum as a focal point of education and of historic, artistic or scientific interest. (e) display and publicise the Collection for the public benefit.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The objects of the Trust are to: (a) maintain the Museum at the range of buildings known as St Ayles, Harbourhead, Anstruther, Fife or any other buildings as hereinafter provided wherein to bring together, hold, adequately house, conserve and document a Collection of Specimens being of historical, artistic or scientific importance and all associated with the Scottish Fisheries Industry and in respect of which there is a strong presumption against the subsequent disposal of any item. (b) acquire by purchase or otherwise, or to take on or lease and thereafter restore, rebuild and maintain the said subjects know as St Ayles, Anstruther and any other building contiguous or adjacent thereto. (c) advance and promote the education of the general public and in particular the inhabitants of Scotland, without the distinction of gender or political religious or other opinions, by associating voluntary organisations, local authorities and other bodies of whatsoever status, together with the inhabitants, in a common effort to establish and preserve the Museum and to obtain assistance and exchange ideas for the furtherance of these objects.
