Trustees' Annual Report

for the year ended 31 December 2024

The trustees present their annual report and financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

The congregation is a registered charity, number SC06377, and is administered in accordance with the terms of the Deed of Constitution (Unitary Form) and is subject to the Acts and Regulations of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

Members of the Kirk Session are the charity trustees. The Kirk Session members are the elders of the church and are chosen from those members of the church who are considered to have the appropriate gifts and skills. The minister, who is a member of the Kirk Session, is elected by the congregation and inducted by Presbytery.

Organisational Structure

The Kirk Session, which normally meets six times a year, is responsible for all affairs within the church under the Unitary Constitution. Certain responsibilities are delegated to committees as appropriate.

Objectives and Activities

The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine, Reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in polity. It exists to glorify God and to work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world. As a national Church, it acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of religion to the people in every parish of Scotland through a territorial ministry. It co-operates with other Churches in various ecumenical bodies in Scotland and beyond. As part of the national Church Presbytery Planning review, Eaglesham has become part of a cluster of local churches along with Newton Mearns and Mearns Kirk Parish Churches. It is intended that this cluster will work closely together with the aim of spreading the word of God and building His kingdom across those parishes and in the national and global arenas.

Eaglesham Parish Church holds services of worship every Sunday. A monthly contemporary service was discontinued during 2024 and instead, contemporary elements have been introduced into the weekly Sunday services. The church holds additional services during Lent and Advent and an Annual Bereavement service. At various times throughout the year the church holds discussion groups on matters of faith and Christian ethics. We join with the local Roman Catholic church for spiritual and social events. We also offer digital worship to share with the congregation and community by livestreaming our services every week, meaning that those who are not able or not yet comfortable with attending worship in person are able to share in our worship.

The church employs a Youth Worker and we have a weekly Youth Group (EPYC) and Sunday School (Churchbuilders). We have now funded a Youth Worker post for over fourteen years. Our Youth Worker supports all aspects of our youth work including providing the local primary school with a chaplaincy service and contributing to the chaplaincy in the local secondary school. We also support toddlers groups and badminton groups for all ages. We have a very strong and well supported Boys Brigade and our youth work also links with community youth groups (Brownies, Guides etc).

Achievements and Performance

Eaglesham Parish Church called our new minister in 2021 and are delighted that we have been so blessed by such an engaging and enthusiastic minister as well as having a full time and well respected Youth Ministry Worker. We also have three Worship Leaders within the congregation who are happy to support worship by taking services when required. This is also supported by teams who will lead prayers and give bible readings. Our minister continues to encourage further engagement with the wider community. One aspect of our new community engagement was the production of an on-line Christmas Day service. This replaced a service in the sanctuary and included elements filmed around the parish. The service was pre-recorded and went live on Christmas Day. At the time of writing it has been viewed around 350 times, well in excess of the number normally attending a traditional service in church. It is intended to repeat this in 2025.

During 2024 we have continued providing a foodbank donation point to support those in need (celebrating its 10th anniversary during the year), built on our digital worship which is offered to the congregation and wider community and elders maintained regular contact with parishioners to ensure they are fully supported. Our minister ran a number of new faith development activities including a ladies Christian monthly book club. Family baptisms have resumed and the children's corner created in the church in 2021 has been grown and developed to provide a welcoming space for young children. There is a longer term aim to concentrate all aspects of youth ministry in our Carswell Hall which was formerly known as the Children's Church.

We have worked hard to maintain youth involvement in the church life and with our Youth Ministry Worker we are building the strength of our youth organisations and activities which are growing in number once more. Whilst the separate contemporary service was discontinued in 2024, our Minister and Youth Worker are collaborating to continue and expand the integration of younger people into worship; some of this will be separate activities at youth groups whilst other innovations will involve participation in common worship. There are plans to involve the Church Band (previously only used at the contemporary service) in church. The age profile attending worship changed during 2024 with a higher proportion of under 40s attending and we welcomed a number of new members during the year from that age group; we hope to establish an annual New Communicants' group with them making their profession of faith altogether at a special service coinciding with Harvest. We also ordained one new elder.

Our congregation links with and supports Tear Fund and Lodging House Mission, along with a number of other local and national charities, demonstrating our commitment to the wider community and global needs.

Financial Review

The principal source of income is offerings from members of the congregation, most of which are paid either by monthly standing order or by weekly donation. Total offering income into the General (unrestricted) Fund, including Gift Aid recovered thereon, was 2% higher than the previous year. Total expenditure charged to the general fund remained stable. Overall, there was a gain of £17,474 in our general fund. Concern over our diminishing income in 2023 resulted in a givings campaign and also various fundraising events such as the silent auction. This, together with below budget spending on the fabric of our building, allowed us to allocate £15,000 of our gain to the fabric reserve and the balance to the reserve fund. We were also fortunate to receive a legacy of £46,919.

Reserves Policy

The trustees have considered the reserves required and have taken into account their current and future liabilities. At the year end the Church held unrestricted funds of £117,037. This included £43,536 in the Fabric Reserve, to be used for any unexpected repairs required to any of the church buildings. The reserve fund of £18,995 represents about 1.4 months of expenditure. The church also held £72,483 of restricted funds which have been provided for the purposes specified in Note 4.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The Trustees must prepare financial statements which give sufficient detail to enable an appreciation of the transactions of the Church during the financial year. The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which, on request, must reflect the financial position of the Church at that time. This must be done to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) and the Regulations Anent Congregational Finance approved by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland in 2016. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Church and must take reasonable steps for the prevention and/or detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Eaglesham Parish Church of Scotland

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024 which are set out on pages 7 to 12.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

An examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44 (1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended), and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended) have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
