What the charity does: We provide opportunities for Christian worship and teaching for both adults and children through our regular Sunday services and other midweek events, and we provide pastoral support to those seeking it. Staff members provide supportive input to some local schools and (in collaboration with other churches in the locality) to the local women's prison. We collaborate with other Christian Fellowships in the Maryhill area both in combined religious worship services and in community support events (eg contributing to the local food Bank and provision of a Warm Space location) We make our building available to partner charities to host occasional large events.
