Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education'

What the charity does: To provide childcare to parents/carers of school age children to allow them to work, provide respite and to pursue further education, the club does this by employing qualified staff to provide quality regulated childcare prior to school commencing and after the school day, as well as full day cover during school holiday and in service days.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: The Company's objects are: a) To provide affordable, high-quality out-of-school care for children in Markinch and surrounding areas. b) To support working parents and guardians by offering a safe, nurturing, and stimulating environment for children outside school hours. c) To advance education, health, and well-being by promoting play, creativity, and social development in children. d) To ensure inclusion and accessibility for all children, regardless of background or circumstances.
