Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations', 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of human rights, conflict resolution or reconciliation'

What the charity does: We are a group of ordinary people who, through believing in his Son Jesus Christ, have come to know the extraordinary God of the universe. We want to share the good news of life in his name. The charity objects are to advance religion, community development, human rights conflict resolution and reconciliation. We have been continuing to teach through Exodus, as well as developing teaching on what it is to be a Christian, to be a Church and to be a part of that, using the term member. We have been benefiting from various individuals giving support by serving in different ways and encouraging others.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Older People'

Objectives: The Church's objects (We Objects') are the advancement of the Christian faith primarily in the Bellshill area and also throughout Scotland and the rest of the World by all means consistent with the teachings of the Christian Bible including worship, ministry, mission, prayer, witness, education, community service and the support of agencies and individuals and other charitable organizations involved in Christian missionary work and the relief of poverty or other social needs.

Other activities

In the past year, the church has grown in love and unity together with regular systematic Bible teaching and opportunities to serve one another. Some of these opportunities have been events, others have been attending to regular needs, and at other times responding to particular needs that have come up in peoples lives.

In October, we had the opportunity to welcome and host a couple of visitors from a sister church in America. This was a great blessing, not only for us spending time with them but for the church to practice hospitality well. Then, we also held a free community event in November called 'I AM MARK' which was a theatre-style, dramatized monologue of the gospel of Mark. This event was well advertised in the community and for the community, and proved to be a great encouragement for those who attended, and again was another blessed opportunity for the church to host well. At this event we had magazine-style copies of the book of Mark, which we handed out for free.

We also had our AGM in November, and we introduced some documents relating to membership and the beliefs of the church, which were an aim to bring greater clarity and unity to the church and those who belong to it. These documents were introduced for review and feedback, in which we came to agreement on having them as a basis for our beliefs and our membership.

Bellshill Baptist Church

We taught the book of Exodus up to December, taking a break to focus on Christmas and then in the new year we started a teaching series in the Gospel of Mark. We did this to build on the event we had and also to spend some time in the New Testament, after having spent time in Exodus. Many people have benefitted from this study and we have been encouraged as a church throughout. We have also had a number of visiting speakers in the church this year, which has benefited us in various ways. We have been encouraged to see people growing in their desire and interest in the Bible and see how the Bible is changing people's lives.

Some of our members have continued to struggle with health, and all three trustees have felt the difficulty of health challenges in their families. This has been an extra strain on the trustees this year, but we have been supported and encouraged throughout these challenges and hope that our work towards clearer membership can result in added support. But the trustees have been encouraged by the care of the church for one another, which has been demonstrated in various ways, including the support and practical care for a family who welcomed a new baby, and also for another woman who became a widow this year.

There has been good opportunity this year also to meet with and encourage some of the men in the church and explore responsibility together. Getting time to specifically teach and invest in some men has been a desire and aim to help the future strength of the church, as well as help develop the current leadership.

There have been a number of practical improvements in the church building as well. We have added numerous points of railing to help people moving around, particularly where there are stairs. Windows were added to the heavy internal doors at the front of the main hall, which makes moving in and out safer. Carpet was changed at the back entrance as well as other repairs being attended to. The communion table was changed to a lighter one which is safer to move. The exterior noticeboards were painted to remove outdated information, and the whole back hall was painted to modernise and brighten the hall.

Another opportunity we have had is a team from America coming to serve us and enable us to run a week-long holiday club for primary-aged school kids. There was a lot of preparation involved in setting this up, advertising in the community, engaging with some local businesses, schools and promoting the event online. Various people from the church helped run the club and were involved in hosting the team as well, and we were able to do some practical work around the building and also some garden work for a housebound member. All in all, this opportunity helped the church grow in service, experience, skill and community exposure. Because of this event, we have also been working hard to update policies and add people to the PVG scheme to serve in the church.

There continues to be challenges of maintaining an older building as well as challenges of caring for our members, and we are always considering how best to do these things and how to involve others in this work. Many in the church continue giving time and energy, as well as supporting the work financially, which we are thankful for.

The Church continues to work alongside other faithful churches and organisations who can help us fulfil our own purposes faithfully as well as multiply the gospel locally, nationally and beyond.

Reserves policy

The Trustees recognise that the Bellshill Baptist Church is a "not for profit" organisation. However, they are cognisant of their position to ensure that the Charity is managed in a manner which acknowledges the inherent responsibilities, demands and structures which form the reality of operating in the Scottish economy. To this end, the Trustees desire to create a "Reserves Policy" which will seek to establish, over a period of time, a reserve approximating to six months running costs.

Statement of Trustees Responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the financial statements of the Charity in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

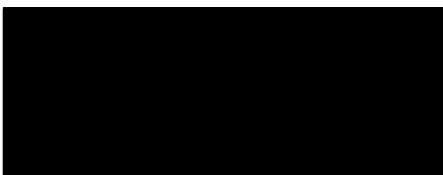

Charity law and regulations require the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law, the Trustees have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Charity and the Statement of Financial Activities for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Charity will to continue to operate.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Charity, and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements can comply with the Charities and Trustees Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Charity, and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) - Accounting and Reporting by Charities 2005.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Bellshill Baptist Church

I report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 May 2025, which are set out on pages 6 to 10.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The Charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustees Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The Charity's Trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10 (1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the financial statements presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the financial statements, and seeks explanations from the Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the financial statements.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:
 - a) to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44 (1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - b) to prepare financial statements which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts regulationshave not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
