What the charity does: Camphill Social Fund(CSF) was set up in 1978 by Camphill School Aberdeen(CSA), as a contingency fund, initially largely to meet the needs of its staff of non-salaried volunteer co-workers. Alongside its more traditional work of providing financial support for Camphill co-workers in their older age and help with medical bills where treatment cannot be provided by the NHS, bridging finance to co-workers transitioning from a community, financial support to co-workers who have recently transitioned to employment, financial support to other Camphill communities and new projects in line with CSF's objects have also received support.

medical and other treatment provided by any similar social fund, or sickness or pension scheme administered by any other trust, home, school, community, centre, colony, incorporation, company, society, association, institution or other body whether incorporated or not and whether having anthroposophical or other similar interests or otherwise. 3 To make provision for the support of the next of kin of such persons in comparable manner. 4 To make provision for the immediate needs of such persons who, by force of circumstances, are required to leave the environment of the Camphill movement and begin a new life elsewhere. 5 To make provision for the support of persons in need due to disability, ill-health, age, financial hardship or other disadvantage through a contemporary application of the Camphill Movement's founding principles and values.
