Constitution and Objectives:

Deed of Trust by William Coull Anderson dated 13th September 1966.

Beneficiaries:

"to utilize the Fund both as regards capital and income for such charitable purposes as shall benefit the Town and Citizens of Arbroath either by improving the amenities of the Town or assisting in the furtherance of the social and cultural activities of its Citizens." "The Trustees shall have regard to the Local Corner of the Arbroath Public Library with particular reference to the preparation and keeping of genealogical and family records appertaining to Citizens of the Town of Arbroath and to any museum which may be formed in conjunction with the buildings of the said Library."

Notes: Ernest F. Cobb's Trust - by resolutions dated 8th December, 1993 and 6th January, 1994 the Trustees of Ernest F. Cobb's Trust resolved to transfer the assets of that Trust to the William Coull Anderson Trust in terms of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Scotland) Act 1990. The Trustees of the William Coull Anderson Trust resolved to accept these additional funds at a meeting on 8th December 1993. The transfer was approved by the Lord Advocate's Department in terms of the legislation and was effective as at 30th September 1994.

Organisation:

The Trustees meet twice a year to assess grant applications, approve accounts etc. The day-to-day administration is carried out by Thorntons Law LLP.

Investment Policy

There are no restrictions in the Deed on the trustees' power to invest. The policy is, long term, to adopt a medium risk investment strategy, including equity investments, to produce a balance of income and capital growth.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of William Coull Anderson's Trust

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 30 September 2025 which are set out on pages 5 to 8

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of William Coull Anderson's Trust

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 30 September 2024 which are set out on pages 5 to 8

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
