Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

The Church is administered in accordance with the terms of the Deed of Constitution (or Deed of Constitution (Unitary Form)).

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

Members of the Kirk Session are the charity trustees. The Kirk Session members are elders of the church and are chosen from those members of the church who are considered to have the appropriate gifts and skills. The minister, who is a member of the Kirk Session, is elected by the congregation and inducted by Presbytery.

Organisational Structure

The Kirk Session is responsible for both the spiritual and overall management of the congregation's affairs. The Kirk Session, which is chaired by the Minister, meets seven times a year.

Objectives and Activities

St Ninian's & Forglen Parish Church is a congregation of the Church of Scotland which, as a national church, acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of the Christian faith to the people in every parish of Scotland through a territorial ministry.

Our vision as a congregation is to be a church where the people of our parish community can experience the love of God, can find faith in Christ, and can grow in that faith and share it with others. To this end, we undertake a range of activities relating to worship, prayer, pastoral care, fellowship, hospitality, outreach and learning.

Turriff St Ninian's & Forglen Parish Church

Achievements and Performance

The main contribution to our vision during 2024 continued to be our Sunday Church services (in-person and online) open to all and providing opportunities for worship, prayer, Bible teaching, and fellowship; pastoral care (supporting those experiencing various life and health issues, or bereavement); schools work (in the local primary and secondary schools); weekly Friendship Cafe (popular with many people who don't otherwise come to church), and various fellowship groups.

Given the church's facilities, flexible space and excellent acoustics, various community groups used the church for regular activities or one-off events. Our livestream facilities continued to be well used, providing online access, not only to our Sunday services but also a number of funerals, to those unable to attend in person.

In line with the requirements of North East and Northern Isles Presbytery Mission Plan, significant progress was made during the year towards a union of St Ninian's & Forglen Church with its four neighbouring Church of Scotland congregations. In December 2024, all five congregations voted in favour of forming a union, which will take place in 2025, to form one united church to be called Strathdeveron Community Church of Scotland. Also decided by Presbytery in June 2024, was the retention of the St Ninian's & Forglen Church building as the sole Church of Scotland place of worship in Turriff, once the union takes place.

Financial Review

The principal source of general income is from regular and one-off donations made by members and church attenders, much of which is Gift-aided. 98 members made regular donations by bank standing order, and a further 22 by FWO envelopes. 81 of these donors were registered for Gift Aid. Income from other sources, such as room lets, funerals and weddings, was on a par with 2023.

The decision of Presbytery to retain the St Ninian's church building as the worship centre in Turriff, meant the block on investment in the church facilities was lifted, and some outstanding work was carried out in the second half of the year.

Reserves Policy

It is Church policy to hold funds to cover a minimum of six to nine months expenditure. At the year end the balance of unrestricted funds amounted to £205,324. Some of these funds are earmarked for future Ministries activity in line with our Vision. The Church also holds restricted funds of £15,313. The overall level of funds remains strong. The trustees set an annual budget at the beginning of each year, and closely monitor actual expenditure against this budget throughout the year. Sufficient reserves are held to cover any significant unforeseen expenditure.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The members of the Kirk Session must prepare financial statements which give sufficient detail to enable an appreciation of the transactions of the Church during the financial year. The members of the Kirk Session are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which, on request, must reflect the financial position of the Church at that time. This must be done to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 and the Regulations Anent Congregational Finance approved by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland in 2007. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Church and must take reasonable steps for the prevention and/or detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the Trustees and signed on their behalf,

Date .....26/3/25.....

Independent Examiner's Report

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024 which are set out on pages 6 to 10.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

An examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44 (1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
