TRUSTEES' ANNUAL REPORT

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

The Church is administered in accordance with the terms of the Unitary Deed of Constitution.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

On 9 November 2021, the church attained full parish status, and appointed a Kirk Session of elders as the charity trustees. On this date, the New Charge Commission dissolved, and the Kirk Session became the managing overseers. On 9 November 2021, three assessor elders (elders from other congregations of the Church of Scotland in the Presbytery of Inverness) formed the Kirk Session, and on 8 December 2021, three elders from within the congregation were ordained and admitted to the Kirk Session.

During 2022, the three assessor elders ceased to serve on the Kirk Session. On 27 November 2022, two further elders were admitted to the Kirk Session, one being ordained at the time.

On 16 April 2024, the congregation was united with Dores & Boleskine Church of Scotland, resulting in one Kirk Session combining the elders of both congregations. On 15 April 2024, all but one of the elders of Dores & Boleskine resigned as members of the Kirk Session, so that one elder from that congregation joined with the one united Inverness St Columba Kirk Session on 16 April 2024.

Rev. Scott McRoberts is the minister to the charge of Inverness St Columba. The fore-mentioned Trustees are appointed to contribute to the management and oversight of the financial affairs of the church.

Organisational Structure

The congregation has been meeting since 11th April 2010, at first in Holm Primary School, Inverness and since July 2013 in Drummond School, Inverness. Up until Easter 2023, the congregation continued to meet fortnightly in house churches and fortnightly all together for worship in Drummond School, which is rented for the purpose. From Easter 2023, a pattern of meeting every week at Drummond School for worship, in a variety of formats through the month, was established.

Due to the aforementioned union of the congregations of Inverness St Columba Church of Scotland with Dores and Boleskine Church of Scotland, the size of the parish now operating under the name of Inverness St Columba has increased vastly. The congregation at Boleskine continue to worship weekly on Sunday mornings in the church building retained for that purpose. They operate as a Local Mission Church, with a local Leadership Team, responsible to and supported by the Kirk Session of Inverness St Columba. Negotiations continue to take place for the building of a place of worship in the Ness-side area of Inverness for the Inverness congregation to worship and to resource the local community.

The Kirk Session met seven times during 2024 for business. They also met once in February for a time of extended prayer together, and once in June to undertake eldership training. The September Kirk Session meeting was held jointly with the Boleskine Local Leadership Team.

A Stated Annual Meeting for the congregation was held on 9 June 2024, where church members and adherents were able to hear and comment on the Kirk Session's vision and direction, and on the financial information presented in the annual accounts.

Management of the affairs of the congregation is undertaken by the Kirk Session, who have overall responsibility for the spiritual and pastoral affairs of the church, as well as the financial and governance responsibilities. Matters of budgeting and day to day financial management are devolved to a finance team. The Local Mission Church Leadership Team has devolved authority to manage day to day affairs for the Boleskine congregation, although all contracts and legal oversight are undertaken by the Kirk Session.

Objectives and Activities

The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine, reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in polity. It exists to glorify God and to work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world. As a national Church, it acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of religion to the people in every parish of Scotland through a territorial ministry. It co-operates with other Churches in various ecumenical bodies in Scotland and beyond.

Inverness St Columba has a worship gathering every Sunday morning in a variety of different forms. Most Sundays involve gathering for sung worship, prayer, hearing the Bible read together, and a sermon being taught for adults whilst two different children's groups and a creche are run for under 18s. On one Sunday a month in the winter months, all ages gather together to share food, bible study, worship and prayer in breakfast services; whilst in summer months the congregation meets briefly in all age half hour service before going out into the community to do something of blessing and help for the community.

Boleskine Church worships every Sunday morning at Drumtemple Church, Boleskine, with hymns, prayer, bible readings, sermons and sharing of encouragements.

All of these gatherings are designed for people to gather around prayer, the Bible, being in church community, and sharing simple food (whether breakfast, or tea and coffee), as marks of what the Church exists to do in advancing Christ's Kingdom in the world and in inviting other people to join in with that.

Achievements and Performance

Inverness St Columba serves the spiritual and pastoral needs of its congregation and parish and plays its full part in the wider Church through the commitment of members to the work of the Presbytery and General Assembly of the Church of Scotland. It is ecumenically involved with its neighbouring Churches, which include other denominations, and takes part in shared events.

In the early part of the year, achieving the legal union of the congregations of Inverness St Columba and Dores and Boleskine was a large focus. Establishing a new building team to take forward the work of that project was also achieved, and that team has secured a renewal of planning permission in principle for a building on the site owned by the congregation, as well as a community and church consultation on the building, and initial plans for what the building will require. A Scripture Union group has been resourced in Holm Primary School by one church member, and another one continued in Ness Castle Primary by the ministry team. The ministry team has been expanded to include an Assistant Minister (having completed their time as a Probationary Minister during the year) and the employment by the Presbytery, and deployment to our congregation, of a Deacon to enable our community mission. Prayer meetings have been run by church members fortnightly in their home. Work has been underway to establish small midweek house groups for fellowship and growth in Christian lifestyle early in 2025.

The minister of the charge has developed chaplaincy work with Inverness Royal Academy, Ness Castle Primary and Holm Primary schools. He sits on the Faith Action Programme Leadership Team of the Church of Scotland to participate in a national role in the Church of Scotland. Joint worship services have been held with Hilton Church of Scotland at Easter and Christmas, and a weekly youth group on Sunday evenings continues as a joint enterprise between the two churches.

Financial Review

Out of a total unrestricted income of £122740 the principal sources were £49205 from our Consolidated Fabric Fund held by the General Trustees (claimed against historic fabric/maintenance costs), £19016 from the Union of Inverness St Columba and Dores & Boleskine Churches, £29050 from Gift Aid donations, £7058 from Gift Aid tax recovered, £21536 from other offerings and £5407 of Investment Income. An unrestricted legacy of £3766 was also received.

In addition, a total of £21564 of restricted funds were received of which £10000 was for the Seeds for Growth programme, £4800 from the Benefact Trust and a total of £5966 bank & deposit interest.

Reserves Policy

It is the Trustees' policy to hold general reserves of six months general fund expenditure. At the year end the Church held reserve funds in bank accounts and on deposit amounting to £103178 which is sufficient for that purpose. The Trustees are aware of the proposed plans for the building of a new church and community centre and at year end a restricted Building Fund of £112049 was retained for that purpose.

The Church also held restricted funds of £ 65917 for the Fabric Fund, £14800 for the provision of an early year's worker in the role of Church and the Community, £298 of Designated Funds for the Benevolent Fund and a restricted Flower Fund of £415 which has been provided for the purposes specified in Note 2.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The elders of the Inverness St Columba Church of Scotland Kirk Session must prepare financial statements which give sufficient detail to enable an appreciation of the transactions of the Church during the financial year. The elders of the Inverness St Columba Church of Scotland Kirk Session are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which, on request, must reflect the financial position of the Church at that time. This must be done to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 and the Regulations Anent Congregational Finance approved by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland in 2007. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Church and must take reasonable steps for the prevention and/or detection of fraud and other irregularities.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

TO THE TRUSTEES OF INVERNESS: ST COLUMBA CHURCH OF SCOTLAND NEW CHARGE

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31st December 2024 which are set out on pages 7 to 12.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

To keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and

To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
