Structure, Governance and Management

Objectives and Activities

Inverness Christian Youth Centre (formerly known as Inverness YMCA) is a charitable trust, and was constituted in 1859, and its history until the 1990s is recounted in the book What God Hath Wrought, written in 1992, by Edward Hughes. Inverness YMCA's first building was opened in 1870 at the corner of High Street, and early AGMs attracted hundreds of people. During both world wars the building was used as a canteen and for accommodation for troops. It was staffed by volunteers.

In 1953 the YMCA moved to its present location beside the River Ness. Under the guidance of the energetic Honorary Secretary, [REDACTED], it flourished spiritually. He was the power behind the reconstruction of the building which reopened in 1969. Despite the recent period of comparative inactivity, Inverness Christian Youth Centre is once again active, having carried out major repairs to its premises and updated its policies.

The main objectives of the charity are: to reach out in a caring way to the young people of Inverness, especially those who are particularly needy; to cater holistically for the physical, emotional, educational and spiritual needs of young people; to present the truth, power and attractiveness of the Christian Gospel through service and through teaching; and to equip young people for Christian Service.

Organisational structure and appointment of the Board of Management

The management of Inverness Christian Youth Centre is overseen by a Board of Management, which is elected annually at the Annual General Meeting held by September of each year. The process of electing officials is set out in the Constitution. The Constitution states that the President, Secretary and Treasurer are automatically made Trustees. The Constitution also allows for further Trustees to be appointed to the Board of Management. The title deeds of the property owned by the Trustees are held in the name of the current Trustees.

Achievements and Performance

The Board of Management note that 2024 had encouragements and setbacks. The year started on a high with a large group coming together to give thanks for the Highland Council Grant which enabled the replacement of the broken-down disabled hoist. The Monday After-school Group continued and one of the volunteers agreed to become a Board Member. The partnership agreement with the charity The Open Door Project to lease part of the CYC/YMCA building progressed but at the end of the year planning and legal procedures were still ongoing. Major work was done to the electrics of the building and the fire alarm system. A full house was accommodated at Smithton Church for a fund-raising supper in September. Sadly, the person who had been interviewed and agreed to become our replacement youth worker changed her mind and withdrew her application, so that was a setback. The quarterly CYC Newsletter was produced throughout the year and the CYC enjoyed good relations with local churches and the various charities which made use of the premises.

Financial Review

The Trustees report that there was an overall surplus for the year of £29,233 (2023 - deficit of £4,432), this included a grant receipt of £17,000 relating to the installation of a new lift on 2023. The balance held in the General Fund at 31 December 2024 was £119,008 (2023: £89,785). The Trustees are very grateful for the gifts and donations received, which help to meet the operational needs of the charity, and are very aware of the need to increase income and control costs.

Reserves Policy

It is the Trustees' policy to hold reserves not committed to Fixed Assets of six months expenditure. At the year end such funds of £119,008 were held.

Plans for the future

The Inverness Christian Youth Centre plans to strengthen its Board of Management, work in partnership with the charity Open Door, develop further clubs for young people, find another youth worker/ youth leader and build good links with local churches.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which show a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and its financial activities for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operational existence.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the Trustees and signed on their behalf,

Report of the Independent Examiner to the Trustees of Inverness Christian Youth Centre

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024 which are set out on pages 6 to 8.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

An examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44 (1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
