- Rebuild of website

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's reserves

The Annual Show - with most of the annual income coming from paying public we are at the mercy of the weather so are now in the fortunate position to have a healthy reserve to cover running costs of the event should the income from the day not be sufficient to cover set up and running costs of the event.

Details of any deficit

A small deficit was recorded of £386, due to gate numbers down, increased cost of facilities and the rebuild of the website

Donated facilities and services (if any)
